

THE OSSOLI CLUB.

The Ossoli Club held its seventh regular meeting on Thursday evening Jan. 19th, at eight o'clock, in the Highland Park Club House. The subject of the evening was "Robert Browning," the essayist Rev. Jenkin Loyd Jones. The hostesses were Mrs. C. M. Green and Mrs. R. J. Street. The next regular meeting of the Ossoli will be held on Thursday afternoon, February 2nd, when the Rev. Y. C. Woleat will read a paper on William Dean Howells.

LOCAL ITEMS.

C. W. Aldridge left Tuesday on a visit to Lake Geneva.

Fresh milch cows for sale or rent at Allen's Dairy Farm.

Mrs. William Tucker of Indianapolis is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Edward Moone.

A. T. Dorothy, conductor on the C. & N. W. milk train, was a Park business visitor Thursday.

Mr. Fred Boynton returned Wednesday evening from a two weeks' business trip through the south.

Mr. A. C. Frost, vice president of the C. & M. Electric railway, is confined to his home in Chicago with a severe attack of la grippe.

W. S. Lane, of the International Home Study Correspondence School of Scranton, Pa., will be in town every Tuesday at Green's restaurant.

His army of friends throughout Lake county will be pained to learn that James Woodman of the Libertyville Independent is seriously suffering from a rheumatic attack.

Joseph Mott, a lineman employed by the electric road, was severely injured at the North Chicago viaduct by being struck by a car last Tuesday morning. Mr. Mott with another employe climbed the steep embankment to avoid the approaching car. It is thought that his foothold was insecure and that he slipped down the bank striking his head against the moving car or coming in contact with the end of a tie. He was taken to Waukegan, where Dr. Knight attended him. Several stitches were taken in the scalp and at the hospital it is said that he will rapidly improve.

Announcement...

The establishment known as the North Shore Laundry has changed management and hereafter will be operated by the undersigned, who have leased it, and who most respectfully solicit a share of your patronage. Mr. Orville St. Peter, one of the lessees, has had long experience in first-class laundries and can assure all who entrust them with their work of first-class service with prompt delivery.
