

months' sentence by the county court at Waukegan. His wife is gradually recovering from her injuries.

Co. L, Seventh Infantry, arrived on Wednesday night at Fort Sheridan. They came in over the Northwestern from Fort Brady. When Co. E, of the Seventh arrives from Jefferson Barracks the garrison will have received its full temporary complement of officers and men.

Ned Healey, an ex-soldier who has of late been employed at the Gray Electric works, was found at daylight yesterday near the power house with both feet and both hands frozen. He is in very bad shape and may be forced to submit to amputation of the afflicted members. He was taken to the county hospital at Libertyville yesterday by Judge Cummings.

F. W. Dusenberry, a prominent resident and horse fancier of Libertyville, came over on Friday to visit E. A. Welch. Mr. Dusenberry will handle Mr. Welch's promising pacing mare, Venice, 2:26 1/4, and will campaign her during the coming season. The mark she now holds was obtained under Mr. Dusenberry's driving at the Libertyville track.

The residents of Ft. Sheridan and the Catholic people of the North Shore will be pleased to know that Father Vatman, so long post chaplain, is expected to return to the post on Thursday next. The reverend father insisted upon being allowed to accompany his boys to Cuba, and went as far as the transports, where his critical health caused him to be ordered back to Fort Thomas. The new orders returning him to the Post, at which he has so long officiated, will be welcomed by a large circle of friends and admirers.

Lake Shore lodge, K. of P., at Highwood held an installation of officers on Monday evening. Deputy Grand Chancellor, Ed. J. Heydecker of Waukegan, accompanied by Messrs Gould, Van Duzen, Smith and Law of Bethesda lodge, had charge of the proceedings. The following officers were installed: Frank Weinacht, C. C.; W. E. Cummings V. C.; D. J. Brody, K. of R. & S.; Chas. Gordon,

M. of F.; John Bolan, M. of E.; J. J. Rhodes, prelate; Axel Roberg, M. of A.; Bernard Welling, M. of W. After the ceremonies were concluded a number of the prominent ladies of Highwood invaded the lodge hall and music, dancing, and refreshments brought to a pleasant finish the work of the evening. Lake Shore lodge has an interesting history in connection with the military movements, as thirty-two of its members are now on their way to serve under the flag at Manila.

Sheridan Lodge I. O. O. F. spread a sumptuous repast at their lodge home in Highwood last night. A number of invited guests joined the members of Sheridan lodge and their ladies 'round the board. Music, dancing and social communion brought the event to a pleasurable conclusion early this morning.

If a multitude of municipal candidates is to be taken as any indication, Highland Park will record almost its full voting strength at the spring election.

THE military people who have now come to Fort Sheridan are already congratulating themselves upon the charms of their new environments, and they will find North Shore hospitality to be as genuine as it is famous.
