

NEWSLETS.

The Womans' Missionary society of the United Evangelical church held a successful and enjoyable oyster supper at the new parsonage on Thursday night. An informal musical was given.

Five young ladies of Highland Park spent a very enjoyable evening with Mrs. Harry Guilford of Ravinia Tuesday evening last. A duet was given by the Messers Harry and Simon Guilford, and also a violin solo by Mr. Ross Guilford. The evening was passed pleasantly with games and selections on the phonograph. Refreshments were served.

A number of the enthusiastic sportsmen of Highland Park are diligently working to organize a gun club. They are meeting with splendid success and the limited membership desired is already assured. The club will purchase a choice piece of property on one of the Wisconsin lakes where all the natural features conducive to good sport are to be found. The artificial features will be provided in profuse abundance for the members.
