

Hill and music by Mrs. King. Misses Elizabeth Dupee and May Murdow presided at the refreshment table and were assisted by Miss Catherine Thomson, May Kiest, Mrs. Parsons and Miss Nina Howard.

The little son of Mr. Schranun has undergone an operation for abcess of the ear.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schnur left last week for Old Point Comfort and other Southern points.

A luncheon will be served at the Congregational church next Wednesday by the Battle Creek Sanitarium Health Food Co., to the members of the Woman's Guild.

The zero weather has made fine

Mr. McCarthy is very ill.

Mrs. Munch and son, of Chicago, visited Mrs. Hanford Sunday.

Miss Alice Clark was the guest of Miss Nina Howard last week.

Mr. Muir, of Chicago, was the was the guest of Mr. John Day last Sunday.

Mr. C. G. Hall, of New York, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Granville D. Hall last week.

On the evening of the 22nd, Washington's birthday, the gentlemen of the village will give a reception at the church to the ladies, by way of a sequel to the reception given them by the ladies on New Year's Day. It is understood the gentlemen are

THE MASQUERADE.

On the evening of the 3rd of February, between the hours of 8 and 10, pedestrians in Glencoe were greeted by strange sights. People of all sorts and conditions seemed imbued with one idea—to reach the Village Hall where high carnival was to reign. Old Ireland arrived first with Germany at her heels. Representatives from China, Africa and Spain followed in quick succession. Two of Teddy Roosevelt's rough riders, five of Barnum's clowns, Little Red Riding Hood, three Moorish maidens, Aunt Jemima of pan cake fame, Mephistopheles, Cardinal Richelieu, Where-Are-You Going My Pretty-Maid, the Be-ice on the lake and while some mothers think it an unsafe place to skate, the small boys skate with great conviction that there isn't the slightest danger.

Interior of Ezmoor Country Club House. Highland Park.

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the Congregational church held their annual meeting with Mrs. Ingraham at "The Manse" Saturday, Feb. 4. Mrs. Moses Smith was present at the meeting.

The largest dance of the season was given at the Village Hall, Friday, the 10th. The patronesses were: Mesdames Horne, Hankey, Parry, Johnson, McLeish, Geo. F. Orde, C. L. Day; the patrons: Messrs. Hank-ey, Johnson, Alison, M. B. Orde, Totten, Barnett and Copeland.

to have neither the assistance of the ladies nor the help of a caterer in getting up the refreshments. Elaborate preparations for the affair are being made.

The literary and musical entertainment given at the Village hall Wednesday evening, by the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Lakeside Catholic church, was fully up to the expectations of its promoters. Large delegations from the surrounding villages attended as well as a good representation from Glencoe.

Advertisers in the NEWS LETTER are now able to reach the best class of readers on the North Shore, owing to the consolidation of the newspapers heretofore published at Highland Park and Winnetka.

reaved Widow, the Nun and Night with her galaxy of stars; last but not least the Little Babe so timid and shy, while in and out among the throng stalked Death with his grinning skull, but his sword was sheathed for this evening at least. Following in the wake of this strange crowd came a number of the citizens who ranged themselves around the hall and began lesson in character study. The questions asked were numerous: the answers amusing and perplexing. Now, among those gathered here were men of wisdom. One of these, P. D. Q., resolved to exercise his penetrative faculties in deciphering the disguises of this moving crowd. Persistent questioning failed and he confessed himself