

Highwood and Fort Sheridan.

Mrs. Quirk visited in Evanston during the week.

Mrs. H. C. Bishop, of New York, is a guest of Major Coolidge.

Mrs. George Webster and daughters have taken quarters in garrison.

Dr Harris, who has been on duty at Huntsville, Ala., has been assigned to this post.

Mr. Frank Hunter made a brief call upon his sister, Mrs. A. B. Holabird, early in the week.

Two troops of the Third cavalry which left Augusta, Ga., on Monday arrived at Fort Sheridan Thursday afternoon.

Hon. W. F. Hogan, accompanied by Messrs. Welch and Condon were participants in a stag party given in Chicago on Sunday evening last.

Wednesday was pay day at Fort Sheridan and the boys are taking advantage of the fact to replenish alike their wardrobes and interiors.

Highwood and Fort Sheridan people express satisfaction at the attempt made by this paper to give their interests and affairs proper representation.

Mrs. Ed LaBarr, a former resident of Highwood, has returned to her present home in Kansas City. While here she visited the Fitzgerald and Watson families.

Another addition to the military population at Fort Sheridan has arrived. It is a little daughter born to Mrs. Ed. Hart, wife of Sergeant Ed. Hart, now in foreign waters.

Ladies of the Catholic Order of Foresters at Fort Sheridan held a very pleasant dancing party in the mess hall last night. Prior's orchestra of Highland Park furnished music.

Mr. J. J. Condon, the wideawake representative of the C. & N. W. Ry., at Ft. Sheridan proposes to make a railroad man of his brother, Mr. Harry Condon of Harvard who has come to Fort Sheridan station to absorb a practical knowledge of telegraphy and station work.

The officers' hop on Mouday night will attract a number of North Shore society people. These affairs are greatly looked forward to, and tend to relieve the monotony of garrison life.

Mr. T. L. Horne has secured the clerical services of Mrs. May Harper, who will assist in dispatching the large volume of business which is crowding the Fort Sheridan Photo studio.

Corporal Kirby of L company, seventh infantry, while attempting to board train 88 at Highwood on Monday was thrown against the cattle guard and badly shaken up, but fortunately escaped without breaking any bones.

The family of Captain Robinson, who is now enroute to Manila, contemplate leaving Fort Sheridan for their home in Pennsylvania. They have been an active factor in the social life of the post and their removal is decidedly to be regretted.

Captain Farrell of the Fourth infantry, with a detachment of thirteen men, left for Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 8, to proceed with the Seventeenth U. S. infantry to New York and on to Manila. The men were unable to leave with the Fourth owing to sickness.

Father Vatman has been assigned to the chaplaincy at Fort Sheridan and Father Gavitt expects orders daily for transfer to duty elsewhere. During his residence at Fort Sheridan the reverend gentleman has made many warm friends who will greatly regret his departure.

L company, Seventh infantry, is composed entirely of Bostonians and numbers among its membership many men of musical, dramatic and comedy skill. Recently at Ft. Brady the company gave a minstrel entertainment which netted them over $200. It is to be hoped that before the boys are mustered out and leave for the east, that they can be prevailed upon to publicly repeat at least a portion of the minstrel program which won for them so much credit at Fort Brady.

The ladies' sewing circle of the Methodist church at Highwood gave a pleasing entertainment a few evenings ago. Among the musical and literary features of the evening were: a solo by Miss Belle Mowers, an instrumental number by Mrs. Chester, a song by Mr. Rollin Pease and readings by Mrs. Burnham and Mr. Morris.
