

WITH THE LOG ROLLERS.

If certain predicted events materialize the active politicians in city and township are almost sure to precipitate a local campaign which for hard fighting, scandalous exposures, and intense bitterness of feeling will be without precedent in recent years.

A number of announced candidates are in the race more with a view to defeating some other candidate than because of their own hope of election. There will be many candidates in the field and the tickets will be cut to pieces. So far for the mayoralty are announced Mr. Cobb and Mr. Fletcher against both of whom a third candidate will surely appear. Messrs. Schumacher and Holmes may reasonably anticipate the naming of a dark horse who will triangulate the treasurership. Three candidates for city clerk have appeared: Mr. Finney, Mr. Thomas Dooley, Mr. Ed Warren and another candidate will undoubtedly be named.

The supervisorship will prove a battle royal beyond doubt, Mayor Evans may run, Dr Ingalls is announced, Wm. Obee would like nothing better than to enter the list, and J. C. Coe may be a formable antagonist if he decides to get in line.

Many in the Park are enjoying reading the book so much talked of just now—David Harum. This interesting work may be purchased at A. P. Dunn's.

For the beautiful half-tone scenic views appearing in this issue the NEWS-LETTER is indebted to the courtesy of Messrs. Rice & Creighton, real estate operators, Chicago.

Many of the young people in the Park are thinking of organizing a tennis club here this spring. This will probably be done unless the golf club should add tennis courts to their other attractions.

Rev. Robert M. Rabb will preach in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. The morning subject will be: "Gratitude;" Evening subject, in connection with the young people's service will be: "Ingratitude."

When on the right side don't forget King B.

One of the unhappy results of the recent cold wave in this vicinity was the loss sustained by Mr. Fritz Bahr in the freezing of many of the fine flowers in his hot-house. That Mr. Bahr's loss is not as great as at first supposed is a source of gratification to his many friends.

The Cinch party at the home of Miss Wilcox on Thursday evening, was a courtesy extended to members of the Cinch club in return for many invitations on previous occasions from the club to Thursday evening's hostess. The game was thoroughly enjoyed by all the participants and the prizes were easily captured by Miss Irene Floyd for the ladies and by Mr. Belden for the gentlemen.

Dr. Babcock, well known to nearly every one in the Park is building a summer home at Greenlake, Wisconsin, a popular place of recreation for many Highland Park people. It is a beautiful sheet of water, ten miles long by from two to three in width. It is extremely deep and entirely free from surface weeds, thus making an ideal body of water for yachtsmen. The fishing is good, and there is a flourishing Golf club there. Mrs. Colvin, a sister of Mr. Ed Small, has a summer home at Greenlake, as has also Capt. O. H. Morgan. One summer there were over fifty people from the Park, and they will all probably agree in saying Greenlake for natural beauty has no equal in the United States unless it be Lake George in New York state.
