

*****
 • • Highwood and Fort Sheridan. • •
 *****

Go to Breakwell's for groceries

The sewing circle of the Methodist church gave a social Friday.

One of Mr. Breakwell's horses dropped dead a few days ago.

Capt. Greene of Buffalo is visiting Col. Coolidge and also his cousin Mr Harry Marsh.

The Rebecca lodge will celebrate St Patrick's day by a dance in Hogan's hall.

Dr. Ingalls of Highland Park took a Rebecca degree here during the week.

Miss Jennie De Roo, postmistress, and her sister, Mrs. Kelly, spent Sunday at Roseland.

Mrs. Werden, mother of Mrs. W. E. Cummings, who is visiting her children here, has been taken seriously ill.

Mr. W. C. Barrett, formerly in the drug business here, is now prospering as proprietor of a Chicago pharmacy at the corner of Dearborn and Lake streets.

Mr. C. E. Preston has returned from a successful commercial trip. He finds business improving also in his general store here.

Mr. Allen G. Clampitt is an announced candidate for alderman in the second ward, Highland Park, for the unexpired term of Dr. Turner who has resigned.

Mr. Huxtable has caused the Fort Sheridan hotel to be newly decorated throughout in anticipation of a heavy summer patronage. This elegant establishment now reflects the artistic work of W. P. Rutherford, Highwood's leading painter and decorator.

On Monday evening the North Chicago camp of Modern Woodmen will give a dramatic entertainment entitled "In Cuba Libre" at the Park pavilion for the benefit of the Highwood camp. This four act patriotic play has been cordially received elsewhere and will be repeated at Highland Park for the benefit of the local woodmen.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Welch have returned from a very pleasant trip to Savannah, St Augustine and Jacksonville. They had a splendid time and were greatly benefited by their stay in the southern clime.

Mrs. Mary McConnell, of Lake Forest, daughter of Mrs. Conorton of Highwood, is seriously ill with lung trouble and her recovery is doubted by her many friends and associates here where she was reared.

Mrs. W. F. Hogan has returned from a delightful trip to Albany, Boston and Washington where she was royally entertained by friends and relatives for two weeks. On Monday night over thirty prominent Highwood people gave a happy and enjoyable surprise party at her residence to mark their pleasure at the return of one who is the life of every Highwood social affair.

Mr. Dusenberry came over from Libertyville on Thursday to get Mr. Welch's pacing mare "Venus." She will be trained at the Libertyville track and will probably campaign the spring circuit.

POST GOSSIP.

Mrs. Col. Ainsley and her mother of Chicago were the guests of Major Wainwright on Thursday.

A detachment of ten recruits have left for Fort Robinson in charge of Joseph Miller. They will join the First cavalry.

Mrs. H. M. Bispham, who has been the honored guest of her sister, Mrs. Col. Coolidge, has started for her home at Paris, France.

The acting hospital steward, George C. Van Sickle, has left with ten men of the hospital corps for San Francisco, from whence they will sail to Manilla. "Van" has been at the Post for three years and has made many friends. He recently returned from the Cuban campaign.

The family of Captain Boynton of L Troop, Third cavalry, have arrived from St. Louis and will be a permanent addition to the social life of the Post.

On Thursday Major R. P. Wain-

Marie Wainwright, the famous actress, now playing at the Great Northern theatre, Chicago.

*****
 • • Lakeside • •
 *****

Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark are rejoicing in the birth of a son.

Miss M. Graves of Chicago is visiting with Mrs. Robert Scott this week.

Mrs. Julius Rost of Milwaukee is visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Linville.

Miss Ida B. Chapman, who has been staying with Mrs. R. Watt has gone to the city for a short visit.

The Glencoe brass band is going to give a calico hop April 13; music by the Chicago orchestra.

Signs of spring are not wanting; the usual crop of candidates for village councilman is beginning to bud.

The Lakeside Hose company held their annual election Wednesday night. The following officers were elected: Alva Davis, president; Frank Taylor, vice-president; Robert Scrimgeon, secretary; John Taylor captain.

MRS. M. QUIRK, Restaurant and Bakery Highwood, Ill.

Meals and Lunches

At All Hours.

Fresh Bread, Pies, Cakes, Etc.,

Ice Cream and Ices of All Kinds.

DR. H. C. R. NORRIS;

HOURS { 9 to 11 a. m.; 1 to 3
and 5 to 6 p. m.

Cor. Railroad Ave., and Elm Street,
WINNETKA.

CHAS. SCHROEDER,

Dealer in

Fresh, Salt and Smoked Meats.

Orders called for and promptly delivered.

Opp. Depot.

Winnetka.