

NAMED A TICKET.

The most unanimous and enthusiastic political gathering ever held in Highwood was the caucus last night in the Town hall. Marshal Carey acted as secretary. The gathering was two to one larger than on any previous caucus occasion and was representative of the best interests of the town. The following nominations were enthusiastically made without a dis-office. Mr. Swanson has served for eight consecutive years on the board. Mr. Benson, has served six years. Mr. Savage is an old and respected resident, not heretofore in politics. Mr. Brady occupies a responsible position with Mandel Bros., Chicago, and is a representative citizen. Mr. Condon is agent of the C. & N. W. railway at Fort Sheridan and one of the most favorably known residents of the village. An active

CLUB HOUSE DECORATED.

The interior of the Club House this week reveals new charms as a result of the artistic work of the decorators. The main hall revels in a warmth of color—a glorious night green. The ladies parlor is done in tints of lemon color, with woodwork in white. The hall is of a terracotta shade and the cozy library has received rich ingrain paper, deep red in color, with ceiling to correspond. The billiard
