

THE MILITARY ACADEMY.

The finals in the contest for the gold medal awarded by A. C. Jewell for proficiency in drill were held on Tuesday last in the drill hall. The drill commenced on Friday and narrowed down to twelve cadets. A large gathering of Highland Park people was present on Tuesday afternoon and the keenest rivalry was displayed. During the last period the medal was worn by Sergeant Rice. He has passed it over to the winner of Tuesday,

CORPORAL HARRY FANE.

Corporal Harry Fane. This clever young man is very proud of his acquisition and is receiving the hearty congratulations of all the contestants.
