

Glencoe Department.

A severe attack of tonsillitis has confined Mrs. F. Howell to the house for several days.

We are all glad to welcome Mr. Hurford and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Day home from their southern trip.

There will be a caucus at the village building on Monday night for the purpose of nominating a full village ticket.

Mrs. James Dennis and Mrs. Joseph Daggett have been spending a few days with Mrs. George Blythe at Racine.

A great treat is promised on the evening of the twenty-first, when the members of the Choral Union will give an "Old Folks' concert."

A large number of our young people enjoyed the dance provided for them by Mrs. Laughray, at the Village Hall Friday, 3rd of March.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Congregational church held their monthly meeting with Mrs. Sylvan Newhall on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Katherine Beresford Orde won the hearts of all present at the Congregational church last Sunday as she sat up brightly in her father's arms to receive her name from Rev. Mr. Ingraham.

Greetings were received by the Woman's Library Club from their president, Mrs. J. L. Nutt. All will regret to learn that she has been very ill ever since reaching New York.

The "Dime and Measuring Social" given by the women of the Episcopal Guild at Mrs. Parry's on Tuesday evening was a decided success artistically and financially. The program was opened with a piano solo by Mrs. T. C. King. Mrs. Clementi and Mr. Shaw followed with a duet which received a hearty encore. Solos were given by Mrs. Clementi, Miss Maud Jones, Mr. Shaw and Mr. Ralph Miller. The audience showed their appreciation of all these by frequent encores. Mrs. Hurford also most happily entertained all present by her reading of "Mrs. Brown at the Play." After the program Mr. Forsyth, the chairman, in a few well chosen words introduced the "Measuring" in charge of Mrs. Tapper. Amid great merriment each learned his height at the rate of three cents a foot. Refreshments served by the ladies ended the evening.

An onlooker witnessed a very exciting episode on South avenue last Wednesday. The members of her own and two neighboring households being away, the domestic took the opportunity of setting fire to a heap of paper in the yard thereby igniting the dry grass and leaves. The flames, fanned by the strong breeze, spread rapidly in spite of the hard fight made by the domestic and a certain young lady to smother them. Three ladies, lunching at a neighbors and peering through the window to take a kindly interest in their neighbor's affairs perceived the situation. Not a man being in sight, out flew these brave ladies with pails, dippers, etc, two actually jumping a four foot fence in their excitement to be "at the fire." After tremendous excitement and heroic efforts pumping water by the dipper full from the refractory chain pump, victory crowned their endeavors, and flushed with success they returned home. So eager were they to settle down to prepare the tale of their heroism to pour into sympathetic ears, that again the two nimbly cleared the fence, while the third, as became a staid and middle-aged lady, walked sedately through the gate, sighing to think of the time when that too was one of her accomplishments.
