Little Eloise Kellogg is a victim of the mumps.

Miss V. H. Leonard, of Denver, Colo., has been visiting Mrs. Hill this week.

Teddy Van Duyn gave a party Tuesday afternoon in honor of his seventh birthday.

The question of getting the Highland Park water mains extended into Ravinia is receiving some agitation.

Construction work on the electric road will soon begin in Ravinia. In fact, the workmen have already visited the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Gilford, of New York, have moved to Ravinia. They are occupying "Three Oaks," on Judson avenue.

The Improvement Society met Monday evening but little other than routine business was transacted. The literary program was dispensed with owing to the light attendance. An effort will be made to make the program for the next meeting especially attractive.
