

Glencoe Department.

Mr. F. G. Howells is ill with quinsy.

Miss Bessie Day is visiting friends in Oak Park.

Mrs. Scott will entertain the Whist club next week.

Mrs. Gross of Evanston called on friends in town last week.

The Dozen club is entertained tonight by Mr. Geo. F. Orde.

The Opportunity club met at Miss Murdow's Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. C. H. Bryce leaves for Colorado Springs the first of April.

The Euchre club, formerly the Cinch club, met on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Copeland.

Mr. Ward Case and family and Mrs. Edward Cook are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Case.

Misses Olive and Ethel Hankey spent Saturday and Sunday in Chicago with their uncle, Mr. James Hankey.

Dr. Virginia C. Murdock of China will address the young ladies' missionary society which meets with Mrs. O. R. Barnett, Saturday at 3:30 o'clock.

At a public meeting Friday evening a special vote of thanks was offered Messrs Will Richards and Stanley Hall for prompt and efficient work during the school house fire.

The fire company was called out Saturday morning to the residence of Mrs. Beebe. We are happy to say their assistance was not needed, as it proved to be only the chimney. But four fires in one month makes us easily frightened.

School opened Monday morning in the old school building with Mrs. Laughray in the village hall. Owing to the removal of a partition in the old building, it was found expedient for the 6th and 7th grades to hold its session from 8:30 to 12:30 and the 8th grade and 1st year High school have the room in the afternoon.

Mr. O. R. Barnett has gone to New York and Philadelphia for a few days.

The Board of Education has appointed Ralph Sollitt and the insurance company's J. W. Cassel, as appraisers and a speedy adjustment is looked for.

There is a movement on foot to ask the Board of Education to equip the school house with a stand pipe and fire hose.

Last Sunday morning Mrs. W. H. Johnson was called to Toledo by telegram announcing the severe illness of her mother, Mrs. Hubbard. After she left, a second telegram announced Mrs. Hubbard's death. Mr. Johnson left for Toledo Monday.

Glencoe Caucus.

On the 17th a public caucus open to all voters was held and with substantial unanimity nominated the following ticket: President, Markham B. Orde; Councilmen: James K. Calhoun, Thomas C. King, Sylvan Newhall, John B. Meaney, George Park. Marshal, August Brandt; street commissioner, Geo. Diettrich; constable, John Maloney; collector, A. G. Ligare. The ticket as a whole is a good one, represents no faction and is worthy of election. Messrs Orde and Calhoun are valuable members of the present council: George Park, the plumber is a sturdy Scotch-American; Sylvan Newhall is well and ~~is a steady worker to everyone who~~ has lived in Glencoe during the past twenty-five years; John B. Meaney, our present police constable, has been a Glencoe boy all his life and received second highest vote in the caucus. August Brandt, better known by the name of his stepfather, Elias Retzinger, is married; has always lived in Glencoe and is very popular with the young German voters. George Diettrich is a member of the present council; Ligare and Maloney will probably meet no opposition.

A VOTER.

Old Folks' Concert.

Ye Olde Folk Concert held at ye meeting house Tuesday evening was much enjoyed by ye olde and young of ye towne: Ye folling program will speak for itself.

1. Good masters and mistresses ye men and women will now sing in a Godly manner ye morning hymn.

2. Master Hezekiah Silverthorn will carol ye good old song Rocked in ye Cradle of the deep. (Mr. Ralph Miller.)

3. All ye men singers will sing Juanita.

4. Good mammy will now hush her little coons to sleep. (Miss Katherine Thompson.)

5. All ye men and women will sing ye soothing ditty, Sweet and low by good master Tennyson.

6. Master Abraham Longleggity will render ye first settlers story in ye good old style. (Mr. Charles Allison.)

7. Ye chorus singers will harmonise for you Ah could I with fancy stray.

8. Good mistress Clementine will now sing sweetly the affecting story of Dame and Johnny Sands. (Mrs. Clementi.)

9. All ye men and women will sing joyfully ye sprightly chorus, oh who will o'er the downs so free.

10. Four good dames will tickle your ribs—I pray thee pardon me the slip—your ears with a part song called Ledgems. (Mesdames Parry, Orde, Clementi, Miss Seiber.)

11. Master Golightly of ancient fame will give for our delight his famous old song when George the third was king. (Mr. H. Tottens.)

12. Ye chorus folk will once again sweetly harmonize a lullaby, O hush thee my Baby.

13. Master Obediah Doolittle will sing ye as it should be sung a good old song called Gipse. (Mr. Shaw)

14. All ye men and women will sing by our national anthem to which ye singers will step out in an orderly manner.

Mr. George F. Orde left for St Louis Tuesday night.

Mrs. Gilmore of Denver, Col., is a guest at Mrs. C. H. Howard's.

Mr. A. J. Whipple of Chicago has rented Mr. Gross' cottage for the season.

Mr. J. K. Calhoun and Mr. J. J. Flanders were sufferers from heavy colds contracted at the school house fire.