The political situation here this year is a decided contrast to that of last year, when one of the hottest fights was made for the mayoralty. Not a candidate was announced for any city office this year until within two days of the limit. There will be some competition for the street commissioners office, four candidates have filed petitions. The only other office that has more than one candidate is city marshal. Edward F. Gorton has been prevailed upon to accept the office of mayor for another year. For aldermen in the first ward, Thos. Appleton and S. R. Taber are nominated. In the second ward James Miller and in the third ward C. M. Cutting.
