The bazaar of nations to be given by the ladies of the Episcopal Guild Saturday, April 8th, promises to be both picturesque and unique. The booths will represent different nations with the attendants in costume. In the afternoon from 2 to 5:30 a reception will be held by the ladies of England in which tea will be served in good old country style. In the evening an admission of 10 cents will be charged. The stage will be occupied by the Japanese tea garden which will furnish a continuous entertainment throughout the evening. The articles for sale are useful and the prices moderate. Ice cream and cake will be on sale both afternoon and evening. Come one, come all. Afternoon from 3 to 5:30; evening, 8 to 11 p. m.

A rebate on the water pipe assessment being  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per cent on the four installments collected, is now being paid at the village office to those who produce the tax receipts.
