

kenzie; "First Days Among the Contrabands," Eliz. Bottume; "Old Times on the Mississippi," Mark Twain; "My Life on the Plains," Gen. Custer; "Barren Ground of Northern Canada," W. Pike; "The Mern Oasis" (vols. 1 and 2), O'Donovan; "Life in the Far West," Ruxton; "A Voice from Waterloo," Cotton; "The New Hyperion," Strahan; "From Manassas to Appomattox," Longstreet; "The Porto Rico of To-day," Robinson; "With Kitchener to Khartum," Steevens; "Yesterday in the Philippines," J. E. Stevens.

Juvenile—"Gypsy Breynton," Elizabeth S. Phelps; "Story of the Illad," A. J. Church; "Story of the Odyssey," A. J. Church; "Paul," F. W. Kingsley; "Bernie's White Chicken," Pansy; Polly Oliver's Problem," Kate D. Wiggin; "Master Bartlemy," F. E. Crompton; "Nibsy's Christmas," Jacob A. Reis; "Little Paul," Margaret Sidney; "Six Little Princesses," Mrs. E. Prentiss; "Bits of Talk for Young Folk," H. H.; "Book of Natural History," "The Babbling Teapot," Mrs. Champney; "The Story of Juliette," Beatrice Washington; "The Soldier of the Cross," Mrs. Geo. Gladstone; "Courage," Ruth Ogden; "Cats Arabian Nights," Abbey Morton Diaz; "Mother's Bedtime Tales," M. E. Kenny; "Beautiful Joe," Marshall Saunders; "Thy Friend Dorothy," Blanchard; "General Nelson's Scout," Byron A. Dunn; "The Widow O'Callaghan's Boys," Yollinger; "Story of a Yankee Boy," Hamblen; "Wild Animals I Have Known," Thompson.

Art, Essays, and Miscellaneous.—"Power Through Repose," Annie P. Call; "Journal of Countess Françoise Krasliska," "How to Make Pictures," H. C. Price; "Phantzlana," John Phoenix; "Readings from the Bible," "The Art of Travel," Galton; "Life and Letters of Geo. Ticknor" (2 vols.), "Life and Letters of Washington Irving" (3 vols.), "Mahomet and His Successors" (2 vols.), Irving; "Life of Christopher Columbus" (3 vols.), "Life of George Washington" (5 vols.), "Adventures of Capt. Bonneville, U. S. A.," "Spanish Papers," "Astoria," "Knickerbocker's New York," "Salmagundi," "Conquest of Granada," "The Sketch Book," "The Crayon Miscellany," "Tales of a Traveller," "The Alhambra," "Wolfert's Roost and Other Papers," "Oliver Goldsmith," Irving; "Bracebridge Hall," Irving; "Sculpture for Beginners and Students," Clement; "Mr. Dooley in Peace and War."

Science—"Apperception," Dr. Carl Lange; "Natural History of Western Wild Animals," Cartwright; "Elements of Military Art and Science," Halleck; "The American Beaver and His Works," Morgan.

Poetry—"Schiller's Poems and Ballads;" "Household Book of Poetry," (collected by Dana); "Life's Verses," (collected); "Poems," John G. Saxe; "The Bigelow Papers," James R. Lowell; "Love Letters of a Violinist," Eric Mackay; "The Works of Edmund Spenser" (5 vols.)

Northwestern Military Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson of Chicago and Lieut. and Mrs. Patterson of Ft. Sheridan, were among the visitors of last week; the former to visit their son Harry, and the latter the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Reddick.

Professors Wood and Burke, accompanied by most of the ladies, attended the opera Saturday.

The members of the dancing class and the cycle corps attended a reception given in their honor at Professor Bournique's last Friday night. The boys all report a general good time and fine dance. Prof. Bournique, himself, leading the german.

On last Sunday evening Col. Davidson spoke to the cadet Y. M. C. A., on the subject of "The fatherhood of God."

The members of the cycle corps have gone into hard training preparatory to their long spring runs.

LAKE FOREST.

For other Lake Forest news see pages 13 and 14.

The new golf grounds opened last Wednesday.

Miss Amalie Hofer of Chicago visited Mrs. J. Wadsworth last Sunday.

Mrs. S. P. Gould has moved into the new Sawyer house on Deerpath avenue.

The survey for the new electric road to Fox Lake has been made. It will go through Libertyville.

Mrs. Halsey Gavitt of Fort Sheridan, and her daughter, called on friends at Lake Forest last week.

Rumor says that the Eliza Remsen cottage has been rented ten days during the golf tournament for two hundred dollars.

Work has just been begun on the new station, which when completed, will be the finest along the line. It is expected to be completed by July fourth.

Subscriptions for the NEWS-LETTER may be left with Miss Ada M. Alford at the coal office of Mr. C. M. Cutting.

The coterie met at Mrs. Yaggy's last Tuesday with full attendance. Mrs. Albert Cobb was elected a new member. A fine paper on "Education in the Netherlands," was given by Miss Sargeant.

* * * Ravinia * * *

Several kodacks to be close out cheap today. Brand's studio.

Miss Simond's new house on Dean avenue is being rapidly completed.

Mrs. A. L. Hill and Miss Rosebud Hill left Thursday for Denver, Col., where they will make an extended visit.

The "anti-annexationists" are becoming quite active, but whether they will be able to accomplish anything remains to be seen.

It is reported there is a large deal in Ravinia shore property on foot involving some $30,000. Details are not obtainable at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Kellogg expect to move from Ravinia to Norwood Park some time in May. They have taken a very active part in the religious and social life of the village since coming here some five years ago, and their departure will be greatly regretted.

TO RENT For the summer, furnished; a nearly new, modern 9 room Highland Park house, 3 blocks east of depot, one block from the lake; or will trade for vacant or farm property. Apply to Dr. G. O. Taylor, Highland Park, or 207 E. 44th st, Chicago.

PARTY wishing to dispose of six good dining room chairs might find purchaser by applying to box 43, Highland Park, Ill.

WANTED to RENT—Furnished room with breakfast, by young man. East side. Please state terms and full particulars. Address H 1 NEWS LETTER office.

TO RENT—7 room frame house, partly furnished, 2 blocks east of station at Ravinia. $20 for to Nov. 1st or $15 on yearly lease. Address J-1 NEWS LETTER office.