

Highland Park Department

Mr. Charles Mason and brother reached San Francisco on Sunday last from Manilla.

Next week the Park department will be largely devoted to an illustrated history of the Ossoli Club.

Lieut. and Mrs. Davis leave today for Fort Robinson, Nebraska, where Lieut. Davis will probably be stationed for some time.

Week after next this paper will have a special Fort Sheridan department as a memorial to Capt. Conrad and Lieut. Gregg.

Commencing Sunday, May 7th, Marshal Leesch gives notice that the bicycle ordinance in regard to riding on the sidewalks will be enforced.

M. H. McCarthy, whose fine tailor establishment is on Dearborn, between Madison and Washington sts., has made this spring a specialty of golf goods, and he certainly has the finest selections in this line in Chicago.

Mr. M. R. Cobb, whose place of business is on the corner of Madison and Dearborn streets, Chicago, is selling out at less than half price a fine lot of sweaters and golf goods, as he intends making hereafter a specialty of shirt suitings only.

To set at rest any fears entertained by residents of the Park who have been given the impression by false rumors recently spread by ill-informed persons that there might be a saloon opened in the Park now that there has been a change of city administration; it can be stated that the new city council and mayor will not allow anything of the kind. Any person laboring under the impression that a time is soon coming when it will be possible to run a saloon "on the quiet" or otherwise in Highland Park, will be rudely awakened if he attempts doing the same, for there is a pretty vigorous and widespread sentiment ready to suppress any move to fasten such a curse on this community.

Rev. Mr. Pfanstiehl had planned being one of a party of merry and persistent fishermen on Kankakee river in Indiana this week, but illness intervened and spoiled the anticipated frolic. Mr. Pfanstiehl is now happily in good health again.

The Reliable Incubator and Brooder Co. of Quincy, Ill., are largely responsible for the recent increase in the Park's poultry population. Three large incubators have recently opened up for business in as many homes here and the names of the owners who have the best luck will soon appear in print with the number of chicks hatched. The Reliable Incubator and Brooder Co. have a fine reputation, and it would pay any one interested to send for their illustrated catalogue.

Tonight at the Highland Park Club, the members have a fine treat awaiting them. It is a dramatic program given under the auspices of the Ossoli Club and by home talent. The surprisingly creditable event of two weeks ago—"the Vaudeville"—enjoyed by the club members has awakened the club to a realization of the possibilities for successfully staging, or rather presenting, of interesting and entertaining programs by 'home talent' and tonight's affair will undoubtedly only strengthen the demand for more entertainments by club members. The title for tonight's play is "Gentle Jury." The performance will be followed by a chafing dish supper.

Baptist Church Notice.

Sunday, May 7th, morning worship, followed by ordinance of the Lord's supper with hand of fellowship to new members, begins at 10:45 o'clock. The subject of which Mr. Robert Morris Robb will speak is "What Sort of Religion Do We Want?" Questions to be discussed: 1, Why have any religion? 2, Can a false religion save a man? 3, Do we want a religion with the conscience left out? 4, Do we want a religion with the Bible left out? 5, Do we want a religion with Christ left out? 6, Do we want a religion that pleases the world rather than Christ? 7, Do we want a religion with no zeal in it? 8, What are the characteristics of all true religion?

Evening worship, 7:45. "A Message for the Young Men and Young Women of Highland Park" will be the subject. If you cannot come to hear this message you may send some one to hear it for you.
