Rev. Pfanstiehl was called to La Fayette, Ind., his former charge, to officiate at the funeral of a wife of one of the professors in Purdue University. He returned yesterday afternoon.

A merry May ball was held by the Lady Foresters at Goldberg's hall Wednesday evening. Professor O'Connor furnished the music in his usual acceptable manner, and all who attended report a very pleasant evening.

Messrs. August Noerenberg and James Higgins suffered the loss of their barns and contents, located about two blocks west of the electric light station, last Sunday night. The fire was a very hot one and only for the efforts of the firemen, who were early on the scene and did heroic work, would have been disastrous, as that section is thickly populated. The origin of the fire is unknown. No insurance was carried by either owner.
