where they proceeded to part with their hard earned money. About 11 o'clock a crowd of the boys in blue, seme twenty five in number, became boisterous and noisy, marching about the village and making insulting remarks to all who were out at that late hour. This amusement not proving exciting enough they threw stones and clubs through the windows of a meat market and also through the windows of the grocery store of Mrs. A. J. Hogan. About this time Mr. Rectenwald, a special officer, ap peared on the scene and endeavored to disperse the disturbers, with the result that they transferred their attention from breaking windows to that officer, and setting upon him kicked, beat and pounded him until he was almost insensible. Finally they left him and continued their disturbance until far into the morning, when they left for the barracks.

Mr. Recktenwald, although badly injured, is able to be around the house and will soon be able to return to his duties.

The village people are much incensed over the affair, and will insist upon a thorough investigation and the punishment of the offenders.

Some excitement was created. Thursday by the finding of a note in a bottle which washed ashore. The note stated that "Buck Cavinan committed suicide by drowning himself, April 12, 1899." The bottle was picked up by a man in the employ of Mr. Craner and forwarded to Capt. Colleran of the Central Station, Chicago.

Mrs. Shelby Vance Martin has returned from Pasadena, where she spent the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Durand, Mr. and Mrs. Durand are still in Pasadena. Mrs. Martin could no longer restrain her desire to see the pretty new house which has been in process of construction during her absence, and so came on ahead.

A strawberry and ice cream festival was given at the Art Institute last night by the ladies of the Campus Improvement Association. It is unnecessary to report it a brilliant success. People always go to the entertainments of this association with the utmost confidence in the ability of the ladies to provide a good time for them, and to make them pay for it.

The Onwentsia Polo Club begins its fourth season this week. They will use their new field this summer. The field is so situated that the observers of the game can sit upon the veranda of the club house. This is certainly an advantage over perching upon a brake, trying to enthuse and at the same time balance a parasol between the broiling sun and ones' pink rosebedecked hat. There is also the advantage of being near the stables. The Onwentsia will be the scene of a National tournament in July. Then we will have the opportunity of comparing our men with the other players of the country. Most of the players of former years will play this season. In addition to these comes Marshal Field with his No. 1 record from the Hurlingham team in England.
