Dr. H. D. Hull of Crystal Lake was a Park visitor Wednesday.

Mr. Joseph R. Cole of Racine visited with old friends Thursday.

Gus Mearklin spent the Sabbath in Milwaukee, the guest of his brother.

H. Raymond of Chicago, a summer resident, spent Sunday at the Exmoor golf grounds.

Mr. Albert Dickson, a former resident of the Park, is expected to visit friends here next week.

Mr. Vernon Cassard and family of Chicago, were in town and visited the golf grounds Sunday.

Miss Belle Dorsey of South Evanston called on Miss Nellie Rudolph and other Park friends Thursday.

About June 1st the local exchange of the Chicago Telephone Co, will be removed to its new and commodious quarters over F. W. Schumacher's drug store. Increased business made the change necessary, as their present quarters are much too small.

A number of friends of Mr. Chas. Mason gave in his honor, as a farewell courtesy, a dance at the club on Tuesday evening, followed by an informal good time at the home of Miss Nellie Palmer, and a supper at Miss Julia Morgan's, given by Miss Fannie Everett and Miss Morgan. Mr. Mason will not leave for New York for some time, owing to the illness of his younger brother.

Mr. G. Willis Cummings has severed his connection with the Kellogg Switchboard Co, and accepted a position as Highland Park and Glencoe manager of the Chicago Telephone Co. Mr. Cummings is a former employe of the latter company, he having resigned some months since to go with the switch-board people. Mr. Whitehead, whose place he has taken has been promoted and hereafter will be connected with the main office at Chicago.

Mr. Henry E. Groenbaum, the banker, has taken the O'Brien house for the summer. Mr. Greenbaum's son is a student in the Military Academy.

The Baptist Church social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Evans on Tuesday evening, was a courtesy extended to the Sunday school teachers. There were sixty-five friends of the Sabbath school present and the evening was one long to be remembered by all who enjoyed the informal, but none the less creditable program. Every one seemed bent on having a good time and this prevailing spirit of jollity and good humor was but heightened by many unusually good musical renditions by Mr. Hitchcock, Mrs. C. H. Warren and Miss Florence Evans. The musical program was followed by a number of games. Mr. Schumacher's celebrated graphophone deserving mention for its part in the festivities. Mr. Wilson, the Sunday school superintendent, made a brief address, and very happily spoke of the flourishing condition of the Sunday school and the bright prospects for continued prosperity in the future. A supper completed the successful carrying out of the evening's program and the friends of, and workers for, the Baptist Sabbath school are to be congratulated on the enthusiasm and large attendance so noticeable on Tuesday evening.
