

Madame Papa is visiting friends in Winnetka, having spent the winter in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The tree worshipers are mourning over the felling of giant landmarks along the line of the new electric railway.

Friends of Mrs. S. Burr, formerly of this place but now residing at South Haven, Mich., will be rejoiced to hear of her improvement in her present illness.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the postoffice: Harry Ayars, Mrs. Catheria, Wm. Hoagland, Mrs. A. E. Logie, M. Reide, Mrs. Swirtz. They will be held until June 1st, when they will be sent to the dead letter office.

Master Freddie Whitney has entirely recovered from his recent illness, in which he was threatened with congestion of the brain. A hard fall to the pavement from his bicycle was thought to have been the cause. Children should take warning and be more careful.

Mr. C. Arnold is having several improvements made on and surrounding his property in Briar Lane. His own lawn is being raised to a higher grade, and the street is to be macadamized at his own expense. This will greatly add to the value and beauty of the property in Baldwin Place.

The Episcopal choir of Winnetka went to Chicago Sunday to attend the celebration at St. James church of the 358th anniversary of the translation of the prayer book into English. A choir of 100 voices sang. Dr. Stone preached on "The Prayer Book." A large audience was in attendance.

A surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Riggle a week ago. The enterprise was planned by Mrs. C. W. Cole and Mrs. M. Crandell. There were thirty-eight persons present. Music and cards, followed by refreshments, were the order of the evening. Four prizes were awarded—Mrs. Brown taking first prize, a bon-bon spoon, and Mr. C. W. Tostevin the consolation, a cigar holder. A very enjoyable time is reported, all formality being laid aside.

A party of young lady students from this village enjoyed a party at the home of Miss Charlotte Cunningham on Saturday evening.

Miss Gertrude Thorne's Sunday school class deserves credit for the bed of ferns made on the north side of the Congregational church. Volunteers for watering this garden are in order.
