Members' Handicap at the "Exmoor" on Decoration Day.

Tuesday morning at 9:15 the first match play of the year in golf began at the beautiful Exmoor links.

The day was an ideal one for golf, and sixty members "tee'd off" for the year's opening contest. All day the golf course, as viewed from the clubhouse, presented a rare picture to the group of club members and invited guests who witnessed the start and finish play at the first tee and last hole. The morning was one to bring tears to the eyes of Col. Bogie, as far as weather was concerned. For with but little wind and just warmth enough to make good play probable, and with the course in fair condition, it was to be expected that "Bogie" would indeed be equalled if not beaten, but, excepting Mr. J. Al Sellers, whose first nine holes in 45 showed wonderful form for so early in the year, no one was able to complete the course in anything like "Bogie" form.

Nearly all the members showed poor form, and such, of course, was to be expected when one remembers that many of the contestants were having their first golf of the year. Mr. J. M. Sellers made the course in 97, or 93 corrected score, allowing him his four points for handicap. Mr. W. A. Alexander's score was 99, and his handicap of 12 gave him the prize—a fine cup; his corrected score being 87. Below is the corrected score for the morning play. It is to be regretted that so many of the members did not hand in their cards as their scores would have aided the club handicapper in his efforts to make more equitable estimates of the form of the many members in coming contests:

NET SCORE:

Wm. A. Alexander	87
J. M. Sellers	93
L. E. Schwarz	94
K. L. Ames	101
F. B. Bradley	101
Chandler Egan	101
E. S. Marrener	101
T. Barbour Brown	102

F. H. Anderson	104
J. M. Cutter	104
H. A. Towner	105
H. B. Clow	106
J. DeKoven Towner	107
G. V. Dickinson	109
F. Lyon Roach	110
W. Secor Cunningham	112
E. N. Scott	112
John Watson	113
R. W. Patton	115
Harry Channon	127
E. L. Millard	129
C. S. Hill	129
Elisha Morgan	133
J. H. Moore	133
George L. Wrenn	147

Among those who went over the course but did not hand in cards were: J. Wallace Wakem, F. P. Boynton and T. T. Watson.

In the afternoon "foursome" matches Harry and DeKoven Towner won first place, beating J. M. Sellers and K. L. Ames two up in 18 holes in an even hundred strokes. A reception was held at the club in the afternoon. The season promises to be a most prosperous one if the opening day is any indication. A number of members have rooms in the new addition to the clubhouse, every room in fact being taken, and today will doubtless see a good showing of members on the links. The ladies' handicap match will occur next Friday, and judging from the present indications there will be a warm contest for first honors on the occasion of this, the first ladies' match of the year.
