

the grizzled veterans in decorating the graves of their comrades gone before. It is a pretty custom, this of having the children participate in the commemoration exercises, and one calculated to inspire patriotism of the right sort. At the Onwentsia there was golf in the morning, polo in the afternoon and a dance in the evening. The Academy boys graciously permitted the boys from the Elgin Academy to score twelve hits to their one at the baseball game on the campus. In spite of the many attractions at home many sought recreation elsewhere. Some went to Forest Home, Waukegan, others to Chicago to view the finish of the road race, or the parace; and a goodly portion of the population went to Sheridan Park to hear the music and regale themselves on pink lemonada.

On last Saturday, for a time at least, time seemed to turn backward in its flight, when a score or more pompous, prosperous looking men, alumni L. F. U., poured into town from different directions, headed for the college, donned sweaters, and proceeded to contest the ability of the youngsters to play baseball. It was a good many years since they had paced around the diamond and they were no longer young and nimble as of yore when they were freshmen or sophomores and so they were ingloriously beaten. For once this season the college boys were champions.

OPENING DAY.

Decoration Day, afternoon and evening, Ft. Sheridan Park was crowded with hundreds who had travelled from far and near to enjoy the dancing, music, vaudeville show and cool shade offered by this popular retreat. The management was hardly prepared to handle so large a gathering, as the work of beautifying and improving this fine property has progressed rather slowly owing to a scarcity of skilled help on the North Shore at present, but Mr. Whitslar was equal to the occasion. Good feeling prevailed throughout the day; every want of each of the hundreds present seemed to have been anticipated, and the affair seems to have exceeded the anticipations of its most enthusiastic patrons of last year.

The many improvements under way will soon be completed, and new ones, as they unfold themselves to the management, will be introduced from time to time. It is the aim of the manager to make Fort Sheridan Park an ideal place for the respectable recreation seeker; for the rowdy and loafer it is not, as they will not be tolerated. Mr. Whitslar does not cater to the latter individual.

Steward Sheldon of the "canteen" has rented a house and removed to Highwood.

Mr. W. H. Clark of Chicago was the guest of Mr. W. F. Hogan on Decoration day.

The Ladies' Sewing circle of the M. E. church have in mind another entertainment, on the evening of Friday, June 9th. It is a lawn social and will be held at the church.

On Monday Co. E., 7th Infantry, received rush orders to prepare to move to Alaska. To just what point in that country they were ordered to they were unable to learn up to the time of their departure yesterday.
