Music.

Essay, "The Value of Spare Moments"—Mayme Kenny.

Oration, "Importance of Sulphuric Acid"—Thomas Gail.

Oration, "Some High Explosives"—James Shields.

Music.

Presentation of Diplomas—Daniel Pease.

Music.

Address—Rev. Charles P. Anderson of Oak Park, Ill.

Music.

The graduates were: Classical course, Mary Winifred Kenny, of this city; English course, Thomas Hamilton Gail of Highwood and James Culver Shields of the Park.

A Musical Treat.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Grant Whitslar, manager of Fort Sheridan Park, the guests of Mr. Ingall's Hotel Ingleside, as well as the public, were treated to a fine musical program yesterday afternoon by Brindley's orchestra, of the Park. The concert took place from the upper veranda of the hotel building and lasted about one and one-half hour. Many were attracted by the sweet strains and complimented the orchestra very highly for the masterly way in which they handled several difficult compositions. The NEWS-LETTER understands it is intended to hold these concerts weekly from the same place.

Fort Sheridan Park.

Saturday and Sunday, June 17 and 18, the management of Ft. Sheridan Park will run another of their popular vaudeville entertainments, consisting of the following well-known artists: Miss Viola Clifford, America's favorite descriptive and serio-comic singer; La Pell and Edwards, Dutch and Irish knock-about team; The Smith Trio, one of the strongest musical teams in the country, and the Wheeler Sisters—Thelma and Zelma—in the latest "coon" songs and dances.

The management have made arrangements whereby they secure the very best talent that plays Chicago, and you can come and bring your family and rest assured that they will hear or see nothing that could offend the most fastidious.

Prof. Brindley's Imperial orchestra will render the following musical program:

March, "Coon Town Jubilee".....Leo Freedman
Overture, "Orpheus".....J. Offenbach
Spanish Serenade, "La Paloma".....
.....Ch. de Yradier
Medley, "Popular Airs".....Beyer
Solo for Cornet, "Love's Old Sweet Song"

.....Malloy
Two-Step, "The Charlatan".....J. P. Sousa

Children under twelve will be admitted free of charge. Every evening during the week Prof. Brindley's Imperial orchestra will give an open-air concert. Too much cannot be said of last week's entertainment. In very truth the park has been named the "Greenland of the North Shore," for a handsomer spot cannot be found for miles around.
