

wagons, buses and surreys; also furnishes competent drivers when desired. You cannot do better than give him your patronage when you desire anything in his line. Address him at Highland Hotel, telephone 107.

A JOLLY BACHELOR PARTY.

On Tuesday evening, June 13, Mr. H. B. Clark of Sylvan Dells, invited his friend and neighbor, Mr. W. B. White and a number of Chicago friends to visit him at his beautiful home down near the lake. Mr. Clark, who has recently purchased the place, has made many extensive improvements and wished his friends to see how handsomely domiciled he is. All responded and were royally entertained. Among them were: Messrs. Carl Bullock, Fred Hild, Paul Healey, Harry Peters, Walter Dore George Pruins and James Kimball.

News-Letter, $1.50 per year.

Highwood and Fort Sheridan.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. V. Muzik, on Sunday last, a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Howland of Chicago visited Mr. Harry Marsh over Sunday.

Mr. Will Richardson of Chicago was the guest for a few days this week of his friend, Mr. Steckey, of Brindley's orchestra.

P. C. Conley a prominent business man of the north end, has remodelled and put a fancy fence around his place, beautifying it very much.

Mrs. Tuttle has been visiting with her husband, who is motorman on the C. & M. railway. Mr. Tuttle contemplates removing here shortly.

Judge Cummings of Highwood suffered the loss of a promising colt last evening. Mr. Cummings had hitched it to a rig, when the animal got frightened, reared and falling, broke its neck.

Mr. A. Knutzen, an aged resident of Highwood, passed away on Wednesday last at the ripe old age of 76 years. Mr. Knutzen was one of the earlier settlers of Highwood. His funeral took place on Friday.

When in want of a correct likeness of yourself call on T. L. Horne, who will do the job while you wait, and at a price consistent with good work. He will not "hold you up." He is not that kind. His address is Fort Sheridan, north gate.

AT THE POST.

Lieut. Bethol, 3re Artillery, is visiting at the Post.

Dr. Walter Lippincott has left for Boston to take up a post graduate course.

Mrs. F. Ferris of Wheaton, Ill., is spending a few days visiting Mrs. Bubb, at the Post.

Lieut. Deichman, who is visiting at the Post, went to Oshkosh, Wis., Wednesday afternoon to attend the marriage of his sister.

Dr. Turner arrived home this week, accompanied by his sister of Sarnia, Canada, who will spend a few weeks on the north shore.

Corporal Hawkins, who has been acting sergeant major for the past three months, has been transferred to the signal corps and left for Fort Meyer Friday afternoon.

The officers and ladies of the Post are rehearsing a new drama which they intend presenting at the officers' club in the near future. Many look forward to these theatricals with much pleasure, as those taking part possess considerable dramatic ability. All who can should attend.

Sergt. Seifert, who has charge of the storeroom at the quartermaster's office, had a miraculous escape from death Tuesday afternoon. While working in a room sorting an old mattress pile it tumbled down, pinning him so that he was unable to extricate himself. When found he had been a prisoner about two hours and was unconscious. C. Jordan, who happened to be passing, noticed the door was ajar and was about to lock it when he noticed Seifert's hat and calling Seifert he received a feeble answer. Jordan called for assistance and Seifert was taken to the Post hospital, where they labored with him for five hours to bring him to life. At this writing Seifert is out of danger and will be able to be out in a few days.
