Miss Shibley gave a card-party on Tuesday last to about twenty-five of her friends. Among those present were: Mesdames Crandell, Gleason, Sherman, Weart, Bitterling, Frost, Osgood, Riggle, Baldwin; Misses Ellison, Osgood; Messrs. Ellison, Osgood, Crandell, Gleason, Sherman, Weart, Bitterling, Frost, Riggle.

One of the busiest places in the village is the bicycle repair store of Mr. G. Whitney. The reason therefor lies in the fact that Mr. Whitney is a skilled mechanic, understands his business, has competent assistants and is thereby enabled to turn out work in first-class shape and on short notice. He also carries a fine line of wheels which he sells at manufacturers' prices. When in need of anything in his line you cannot do better than to call on him.
