A CHOICE PARTY.

A delightful party was given Wednesday evening at the Exmoor Club house by the Misses Poole of Lake Forest, the Misses Chapman and Mrs. J. W. Wakem of Highland Park. The idea of the gathering seemed to have been to bring together in a social entertainment a company of congenial persons who might not otherwise find themselves together. Thus about thirty persons from Chicago, Lake Forest, and Highland Park assembled.

Dinner was served at 7:30, at the two large, round tables in the centre of the elegant dining hall. It was in five courses. In the center of one table was a large bunch of beautiful American roses, whose brilliant color gave the table a very striking and attractive appearance.

Dancing began at about 9 o'clock and continued till just after midnight, as the Exmoor patrons are not given to late hours. Music was furnished by H. M. Prior's orchestra.

Among the guests present were Miss Yoe, Mr. and Mrs. Wakem, Miss Alice Hosmer, Miss Brockunier, Miss Peasley, the Misses Poole, Misses Chapman, the Misses Scott, Mr. E. N. Scott, the Messrs. Chapman, Forsyth, Kenly, Fisher Lowe, Junkins, Cary, Towse, R. Wrenn and Mr. Millard.
