

James Anderson has purchased from the Lind estate the property on the corner of Deerpath and Western avenues, occupied by him for so many years as a general store. The old building will soon be demolished to make room for the fine new structure now in contemplation.

The first death at the new hospital occurred Tuesday, when Mrs. Whitnell, wife of George Whitnell of Lake Bluff, could no longer sustain the heroic fight she had made for life. Mr. Whitnell has many friends in Lake Forest who sympathize deeply with him in his bereavement.

A picnic at Forester's Grove will supply amusement for many on July 4th. There will be games, races and dancing all day and evening. Dinner and supper will be served, while light refreshments and soft drinks will be dispensed all during the day. At the Onwentsia it will be a busy day, with golf and polo matches, and music and fireworks in the evening.

Owing to the crowded condition of the West school it has been found necessary to rent rooms in the "Brewster House," to be used as school rooms, and to engage two more teachers. It appears to many disgruntled tax-payers to be a pity that, in the interests of economy at least, it can not be found expedient to utilize some of the superfluous room in the new North school, where, it is claimed, less than thirty pupils occupy the attention of two teachers.

The new library was opened to the public Monday morning. The city is especially fortunate in having secured Miss Marie Skinner's services as librarian. She has been educated for this particular work, and is a great favorite in the town where she was born and raised. It is a source of satisfaction to many citizens that a product of the town is found capable of filling the position of custodian of our first attempt at a public library.

The entire community was surprised and shocked to hear of the death of William J. Farrell on last Saturday morning. The young man had not been in very robust health for more than a year, but his death was thought to be far remote. Saturday morning he had a severe hemorrhage and was stricken with scarcely a moments' warning. He was a most exemplary young man and a great loss to the neighborhood. He was the son of Patrick Farrell, one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens. The body was laid to rest in St Mary's cemetery Monday.

Unless there is successful incubation and successful brooding there can be no poultry. Chicks that die as soon as they kick out of the shell, or at the end of the second day, do so because they were not properly hatched. They were robbed of their vitality and their ability to live by incorrect methods in incubation. The
