

While walking along the beach by the pumping station Thursday a young lad of 8-years picked up a $2 bill from the water. It had the appearance of having been in the water sometime. Near the same spot on the same day Mrs. Levin, wife of Mr. Levin, Schneider & Cooke's watchmaker, found a bunch of keys, one being a key to a safety box. The latter key was taken to the safety vaults designated on the key in the hope of ascertaining the name of owner.

Have you seen Sullivan's new plumbing shop, in the old Raffin & Baker stand? It is as neat and attractive as a parlor. That's the way "Con" does his work.

Don't forget another of those elegant $1.00 excursions to Lake Geneva next week, Saturday, July 15th. It will be one of the best of the season.
