
Highwood.

Mr. Neal De Roo, brother of the postmistress, spent the Fourth in Highwood.

Miss A. A. Muller from Chicago will spend a few weeks in Highwood with Miss De Roo.

Lost—A large, half-clipped St. Bernard. $20 reward.

H. Paepcke, Glencoe.

Mr. John Van Loan, an inspector on the drainage canal, spent Sunday with his father, Mr. A. Van Loan.

Mr. F. E. Elliott one day this

Chicago Advertisements.

W. C. BARRETT,
DISPENSING CHEMIST.

PHYSICIAN IN ATTENDANCE.

Corner Lake and Dearborn.

All popular brands of Cigars at popular prices.

Announcement...

I wish to announce to my customers that my line of Imported English and French Flannels for Golf and Tennis Suits is now complete, and I will be pleased to show you the largest and most select stock of novelties in Golf goods. Respectfully,

120 Dearborn St. M. H. McCarthy

M. R. COBB, Shirt Manufacturer, and Dealer in

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS,
N. E. Cor. Madison and Dearborn Sts.,
CHICAGO.

Chicago Varnish Co.,
NAVALITE,
SHIPOLEUM, AND SUPREMIS.

OFFICE,
35 DEARBORN AVE., ...CHICAGO.
Telephone, Express 371.

C. J. HAMBLETON EST 1885 EARL HAMBLETON
C. J. HAMBLETON & CO.,
Real Estate

Money to loan on North Shore vacant property
Telephone Main-3028.
95 Clark St., Rooms 224-226. CHICAGO.

Fowlers... Established 1881.
Manufacturing
Optician.
No. 38 Madison St.
CHICAGO.

week entertained his friend, Mr. F. S. Skinner, a proof-reader on the Inter-Ocean.

Lake Shore Lodge, Knights of Pythias, last Monday evening initiated ten into the mysteries of Pythianism.

James Esfes and Miss Lizzie H. Wilmette, took a trip to St. Joseph, Mich., on the Fourth and were married. They returned Tuesday.

The Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Red Men intend holding a fraternal picnic at Fort Sheridan Park in the near future.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle of the M. E. Church will hold an ice cream and cake lawn social at the home of Mrs. Sholtes, on Highwood avenue, west side of tracks on Tuesday evening next, July 11.

The following were Highwood visitors on the Fourth: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ives, Mr. W. J. Regan and Miss Regan, Mr. and Mrs. Oglesby and family, Misses Lottie and Edith Hunt, Misses Palmer and Long. All enjoyed the day in Highwood regardless of the rain.

Mesdames Pease and Kelly spent a few days of last week in Waukegan. They were in consultation with County Superintendent of Schools Marvin in regard to school affairs.

Mr. F. E. Elliott, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, left yesterday for Springfield, where he will attend the encampment of the 1st Illinois Infantry, with which organization he went through the late unpleasantness. Mr. Elliott has been Mr. Whitslar's right-hand man since the park was opened. He recently was promoted in the army to the rank of hospital steward, the highest non-commissioned position within the gift of the commander.

Lake Forest Department

The Aldriches are at Nantasket Beach.

Mrs. Granger Farwell and her daughter are at the seashore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. DeLacy of Chicago are summering here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wise spent Sunday at Mrs. Dewey's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry T. Miller came up from town for a few days this week.

Mrs. Thos. Dwyer, of Waukegan, spent Tuesday with friends in Lake Forest.

The Hall McCormacks are settled for the summer in their villa at Bar Harbor

Mrs. Basterdes and daughters have moved into the Seymour Welch house.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nash will spend the summer at "The Lilacs," guests of Mrs. Reid.

Lost—A large, half-clipped St. Bernard. $20 reward.

H. Paepcke, Glencoe.

Prof. and Mrs. Schmidt are being congratulated upon the advent of a little daughter.

The body of an unknown man drifted into shore here the first of the week. It is in the city vault in the cemetery—still unclaimed.

Miss Gretchen Isham and Miss Joan Chalmers are guests at "Walden," the country seat of Cyrus H. McCormack.

Dr. Wm. Robson Notman, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago, is spending the week at the home of D. B. Jones. Dr. Notman is an enthusiastic golfer, as all true Scots are supposed to be.

All roads lead to the Onwentsia this week. The eyes of the sporting world are upon us, and it is safe to say that every golf enthusiast in the world who could possibly crowd in has come to the National tourney. Breathing space is at a premium. Local interest cooled off Wednesday when the last Onwentsia man left the field. Now that the contest has narrowed down to Douglass and McDonald, who start out on the final round this morning.