Schneider & Cooke are agents for and carry a fine line of gold and silver watches.

Miss Brown spent Sunday and the first of last week with friends in Lake Forest.

Society young ladies are talking of having a Young People's Golf club, to play for prizes every alternate week.

Mrs. J. W. Mauck and daughters are visiting in Ohio and will shortly be joined by her husband at a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patchen, Mr. Stalter and Mr. Keating returned Tuesday from a pleasant outing spent at Wauconda.

Lewis Stackpole Esq., of Boston. who has been spending a few weeks with the family of Frank C. Brown, left for home last Saturday.

Kenilworth has been a good deal torn up this week by house-moving, clearing, grading, track laying and bridge building, incident to construction of the electric road. The misery of this is nearly over.

Popular "Jim" Dennis of Glencoe attended the firemen's picnic, with his mother, siste: and other ladies.

Schneider & Cooke make a speciatly of repairing damaged and broken silverware, such as tableware, vases, etc.

"Little John Brown" broke all the youthful records on the golf grounds the other day, and to cap the climax, lost six of his sister's new golf balls.

Mr. G. W. McNabb has been appointed state game warden and declares that he will see that the ame laws are enforced. Take warning, nimrods.

The electric road began to make regular trips to the Glencoe depot Wednesday evening and was liberally patronized by Glencoeites who attended the firemen's picnic.

Mrs. Lieut. Williams, after a visit of several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Goe, left last week to join her husband at Fort Robinson, Neb. How long they will remain there is wholly unknown.

The scent of orange blossoms hangs over a certain residence on West Cent.al ave. The News-Letter knows of a beautiful diamond ring, recently bought, which will figure prominently in a contract of two.

Mr. Ben Freberg, who recently went into the livery business, has some of the finest rigs to be found on the north shore. His rigs are new and up-to-date and his horses fast. When in need of a rig call him up—phone 107.

Many of our residents have discovered that Schneider & Cooke can do repairing of all kinds in a much more workmanlike manner than Chicago jewelers and at much less expense. They employ a jeweler of many years experience and guarantee their work. They also make a specialty of repairing and putting in running order old clocks, such "as grandpa used to own."

Mrs. Dr. F. C. Knight and son, Tom of Waukegan, spent Wednesday as the guests of Ravinook. They came down on the trolley, in a long car and enjoyed it very much.

Brother Smith, of the Waukegan Sun, attended the firemen's picnic and nearly lost his heart when introduced to the fair and talented ladies of the vaudeville company. He ran down to Glencoe on the electric cars, his first trip to the south part of Highland Park and the regions beyond. As an aside, he took the prize in the running match—a box of cigars of no value to him personally because he eschews the weed in all its forms.

About sixty members of the Highland Park Y. P. S. C. E., attended the Lake County C. E. Echo Rally of the Detroit convention, held at Waukegan Tuesday evening. Twelve delegates, among them being Misses Brand, Davidson and Alford and Mr. J. D. Mersereau of the Park, read reports. Mrs. Harry Griffin was the soloist and the program was in charge of Miss Alice Smith of Ivanhoe, president of the Lake County C. E. The Highland Park contingent went by the C. & M. electric road, who as usual, made them liberal concessions in fare and put two cars to their use.

A "cullud" person of the masculine gender and a white person of the female sex were seen scorching along together on the sidewalk on Laurel avenue Tuesday. It was an impressive and suggestive sight and would have been more so had the marshal caught them. Their musical voices rolled like the harmony of the spheres on still summer air; and the bold contrast between their complexions stood out in bas-relief in the golden tints of the setting sun. On with the dance; let joy be unconfined.

Rector P. C. Wolcott was in the city Wednesday on his return from Oskaloosa, Ia., but like the wise man that he is, he pushed right for Lake Superior where he will spend the month of August. The services at Trinity church during the four Sundays of his absence will consist of the 11 o'clock morning service only, in charge of the lay reader, Mr. W. O. Hipwell.
