Among the best songs that have appeared this season for use by the profession on the stage the coming season is the song entitled, Just the Picture of the Girl I used to Know, with words and music by Hattie Nevada—the queen of song-writers. It has a very catchy air and the words tell the story of broken vows brought to memory by the accidental sight of an old photograph in an album. Lovers of chaste and popular songs should secure a copy of this song. It is published by the Kansas City Talking Machine Co. of Kansas City, Mo. Copies can be had of any regular music dealers, or the publishers will forward copy on receipt of twenty-five cents.
