

propose to start at 8 o'clock in the morning and make a picnic day of it.

People from all sections of the county report that there will be a general exodus from all districts on the date of the monument dedication.

The intelligence that Lake Camp, M. W. A., will come out in full regalia to participate in the parade will no doubt move other camps of the county to do likewise.

There is a general intention upon the part of Waukegan citizens to decorate their homes and places of business for the event. The city will be in its best clothes in honor of its visitors.

Mrs. Sporlien and two sons of Chicago, are spending the week with Mrs. John Snyder.

Mrs. H. Rubin has bought the Campbell house.

Mrs. A. P. Smith and family are at Green Lake for a week.

Mrs. C. S. Cushing has left for New York, to be absent a week or ten days.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. Daniel Cole, Wednesday evening, in honor of his daughter, Miss Mabel Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Raymond are boarding at Exmoor Club.

Friday morning George Pfister of Wauconda, was in the Park in search of a team of horses stolen from him Wednesday morning, and for the return of which he offers a reward of $25. One of them he described as an iron gray; the other white. They were hitched to an ordinary farm wagon.

WANTED TO RENT.—A small cottage or 4 room flat; permanent. Inquire at this office.

Highwood.

A fine show is holding down the Park this week.

Mr. Will Regan and sister were Highwood visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Welch and family and Mr. John J. Condon are putting in the week at Fox Lake.

Improvements at the Park are being pushed—something new and attractive greeting one every time he enters.

Mr. Von Hoften has disposed of his good will and interest in the Park to his partner, Mr. Grant Whitslar, who alone will manage it this season.

Mrs. Conroy of Chicago, came out to see her husband, our new tonsorialist, this week. Mr. Conroy intends moving out as soon as suitable quarters can be procured.

At the hop in Hogan's hall, held last evening, by Highwood Rebekah lodge, a large and select crowd was in attendance. As usual everybody enjoyed it hugely.

Sunday the electric railway people were unable to accommodate the eager crowds who wished to make the round trip over the road to commemorate its opening from one end of right-of-way to the other. Highwood and Fort Sheridan were the principal attractions to everybody from both north and south. So great was the rush to get over the line by Evanstonians that agents there had to quit selling tickets and refund many of the dollars they had taken in.

For real estate loans in sum of $500 to $10,000. Apply to D. M. Erskine & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holabird and family are spending a couple of days at Koshkonong Lake, Wis.

Watches, clocks and jewelery of all kinds may be found at Schneider & Cooke's, and at Chicago prices.

Mr. Charles Brindley has added six musicians to his orchestra. One can now enjoy a brass band as well as an orchestra at the Park. The change seems to give general satisfaction.

Mrs. Quirk, accompanied by her niece, Miss O'Neill, was in Evanston this week in attendance at the funeral of her mother. Mrs. Quirk has the sympathy of a host of friends in her affliction.

The order of Columbian Knights, recently organized, is progressing finely, and now number twenty-five strong, and many applications for membership have been received since its last meeting. Much credit for this fine showing is due Mr. W. T. Ward.
