Last Sunday, ex-Marshal John Meyers, formerly of the Park, now a sergeant of the Central station, of Chicago, in company with two other sergeants, paid a visit to our city, through the invitation of Marshal Leesch, who showed them the workings of our police department. The gentlemen from the metropolis spoke favorably in regard to our police system, but made suggestions in regard to the telephone patrol, which, they say, would greatly expedite work and at the same time it would not be necessary for a patrolman to leave his "beat" while making an arrest.

MAKE POULTRY PAY.

In order to succeed in the poultry business as well as in anything else, it is necessary to start right. The first essential is poultry (chicks) itself. Unless there is successful incubation and successful brooding there can be no poultry. Chicks that die as soon as they kick out of the shell, or at the end of the second day, do so because they were not properly hatched. They were robbed of their vitality and their ability to live by incorrect methods in incubation. The make no such mistakes. They are so constructed that a new beginner is bound to succeed—just fill and light the lamp; the machine does the rest. Controls heat, moisture and ventilation perfectly.
