
Highwood.

An Exciting Race.

There promises to be much excitement this afternoon at Muhlke's race track, Deerfield, where will occur the horse race for $50 a corner and the championship of highwood. The winner is to take all—including the championship, which is no small honor, for Highwood boasts many fast and blue-blooded steeds. The race is to take place at 1 p. m. sharp; American Trotting Association rule to govern, with mile heats—best three in five. Among the horses entered are Huckleberry, owned by James Huxtable; King Paige, D. H. Murphy; April Bud, M. J. Gibbs; Soldier Boy, Chas. Benson; Lady H., J. Huxtable; Topsy A., F. Anderson; Mail Marion, W. E. Cummings; Weary Willie, Charles Benson.

Mr. T. Sloane has promised to guide to victory Mr. W. E. Cummings' "Mail Marion," Bud Doble will attempt the same feat behind Mr. M. J. Gibbs' "April Bud," and Mr. L. V. Knott will have charge of J. Huxtable's Huckleberry. Other drivers of international reputation who have promised to grace the occasion are Charles Gordon, F. Anderson,

Charles Williams, J. Huxtable, Jr.

There probably is not a town of the size of Highwood in the state where can be found so many fast horses and where so much rivalry exists among owners. On account of the latter fact it promises to be a noteworthy contest. Large delegations are expected from Waukegan, Libertyville, Lake Forest, Highland Park and even from Chicago. Almost the entire population of Highwood promises to witness the race.

The "smoker" of Highwood lodge of Columbian Knights held Tuesday was a brilliant success and largely attended. Quite a few brother knights from Chicago, Evanston and Highland Park were present and a pleasant time is reported by all.

There promises to be a large attendance from this place at the stag party of the Modern Woodmen at Waukegan on Oct. 7th. One of the most interesting features will be a tug-of-war contest with the Waukegan and Highwood fire departments as principals.
