

WANTED—SEVERAL BRIGHT and honest persons to represent us as managers in this and close-by counties. Salary $900 a year and expenses. Straight, bona-fide, no more, no less salary. Position permanent. Our references, any bank in any town. It is mainly office work conducted at home. Reference. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. THE DOMINION COMPANY, Dept. 3, Chicago.

Highwood.

Mr. W. F. Hogan is a sufferer from hay fever.

Mrs. Henry Olson, of Waukegan, was a Highwood visitor Friday.

The damage done to the depot and platform in the recent wreck has been repaired.

St. Mary's Parish will hold a fair at the City hall, Nov. 6 being the opening night of the same.

The electric railway has applied to the village for permission to lay a second track from Sweeney's crossing to Fort Sheridan Park.

Mr. Carlson who ran a cut price store opposite the depot has vanished to all appearance, but will be found at his residence headquarters.

Mr and Mrs. J. Franklin, who recently opened the restaurant opposite the north gate at the Post, have been blessed with a son.

The firm of Brown & Tuttle, dealers in meats, has been dissolved. Mr. Tuttle will continue the business at the old stand, with Mr. Brown as clerk.

Mr. T. L. Horne has rented the house owned and recently vacated by Mr W. C. Barrett, and, intimate friends say, is furnishing it preparatory to installing in the same a life partner, a sweet and clever young lady from Canada.

St. Johns Court of Foresters of Highland Park is arranging to present a drama with some of their members in the cast, at Fort Sheridan Park on Thanksgiving eve. Following the drama will be a hop. It promises to one of the most largely attended affairs ever held at the Park.

Mrs. W. M. Inman, of Ravenswood, has this week been a Highwood visitor, the guest of friends.

Mr. W. C. Barrett has rented and moved his family into a flat on Astor Place, one of the most fashionable and exclusive spots on the north side, Chicago.

A movement is on foot to organize a social club for Highwood, to be known as the Highwood Club. It is the intention of the promoters to furnish rooms and provide a place for social intercourse for members and their friends. Entertainments also will be held at least on one evening of each week. The plan has evoked much enthusiasm and already the list of membership is of considerable length.

Installation. Hop and Supper.

Quite a crowd attended the hop and supper which followed the installation of the new officers of Sheridan Lodge, I. O. O. F. in Hogan's hall last Wednesday evening. The music, by a Chicago orchestra, was first-class and the supper all that could be desired. The officers installed were as follows: John Gustafson, N. G.; Jacob Faulker, V. G.; E. A. Welch, treas.; John Kinsella, secretary; Herman Swanson, warden; A. A. Dahl, R. S. N. G.; D. H. Murphy, L. S. N. G.; John J. Condon, conductor. Mr. D. J. Brady acted as grand master and Mr. W. F. Hogan as grand warden and musical grand marshal.

Winnetka.

FOURTH LECTURE COURSE.

The Winnetka Center of University Extension is pleased to announce as its fourth lecture course, six lectures on "The Men Who Made the Nation" by Edwin E. Sparks, A. M., of the University of Chicago.

Lecture I.—Benjamin Franklin, the Colonial Agent. i. Inter Relations of the Colonies. ii. Relations of the Colonies to England. iii. Making the Colonies Profitable. iv. Failure of the First Attempt. v. Franklin Guarding Colonial Interests.

Lecture II.—Samuel Adams, and the Massachusetts Rebellion. i. Revolutionary Machinery. ii. Coercion in Massachusetts. iii. Massachusetts in Rebellion.

Lecture III.—John Adams, the Advocate of Independence. i. The First Continental Congress. ii. The Second Congress Assumes Authority. iii. Tendencies Toward Independence. iv. John Adams, the Advocate of Independence. v. The Declaration of Independence.

Lecture IV.—Robert Morris, the Revolutionary Financier. i. The Confederation. ii. The First Critical Period of the Republic. iii. Finances of the Revolution. iv. Robert Morris as Superintendent of Finances. v. Robert Morris as a Patriot.

Lecture V.—Alexander Hamilton, the Builder of the Constitution. i. Final Collapse of the Confederation. ii. Steps Leading to a Convention. iii. The Philadelphia Convention of 1787. iv. The Constitution Adopted. v. A Short Study of the Constitution.

Lecture VI.—George Washington, the First President. i. Organization of Congress. ii. Organization of the Executive. iii. Organization of the Judiciary. iv. Hamilton's Financial Plans. v. A Short Review of the Period Involved in the Course.

Executive Committee—H. A. de Windt, chairman; Miss Mary Gillespie, secretary; Rev. H. G. Moore, Miss May, Mrs. J. G. Weart, C. C. Thorne, Winnetka; J. J. Flanders, Glencoe; O. E. Poole, Lake Side.

Tickets for course, $1.50; admission, 35 cents; scholar's ticket, 75 cents.

The lectures will continue from Oct. 9 to Dec. 18, on Monday evenings, and will be held in the Congregational church.

Miss M. Brown is the guest of Mrs. H. Goodchild.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Miller have gone to Arkansas for a short time.

George Nethercot and family have returned to Winnetka, also Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Merrilies.

Mrs. J. D. Cole has returned from her visit in California. Miss R. Gardner returned with her.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hillegas are now visiting friends in Winnetka. Mrs. Hillegas spent the summer in South Dakota.