

church, Winnetka, will hold their annual Christmas bazaar in Copelin's hall on Tuesday, Dec. 5th. Admission free in the afternoon. In the evening there will be a dramatic entertainment under the auspices of Mrs. Buchanan assisted by six of the young ladies of Winnetka. Coffee, cake and ice cream will be served. Evening admission 35 cents.

Mrs. C. E. Hall gave an afternoon reception on Thursday from two-thirty to five. The house was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums autumn leaves and begonias, the dining-room with white chrysanthemums and ferns. Misses Brack, Graves, Monrad and Thorne presided over the table and served refreshments. Those present, about sixty in number, had the rare treat of listening to Mrs. Papa give a number of selections from well known operas made especially interesting by the little talk which preceded each. Mrs. Papa sails early in December for Paris and so will not appear again before a Winnetka audience for some time.

Miss Florence Capron is visiting friends in Milwaukee.

The ladies' cinche club met with Mrs. Murdow on Friday afternoon.
