

ium. The topic: What can the Women of Highland Park do for Their City? Will be discussed by the clergymen, physicians and principals of our schools.

The Highland Park Woman's Club will be at home on Tuesday January 2nd, to the members and associate membership, by associate members is meant the gentlemen belonging to the households of the women of the club. The hours are from half after seven until ten. Any member of the Woman's Club wishing to know further particulars can gain them by speaking to the officers of the club or to the chairman of the house, or entertainment committee Skating.

A lot of the lads of this city called on Alderman Van Riper one evening this week and asked him to lead off in the matter of preparing the skating rink for the winter, now that Mr. Egan is gone. He has consented to do so with a most commendable public spirit, and will have the rink put in order at once and place the tickets on sale at Schumacher's drug store. He does this to help out the young people who want the rink. We think the people should stand by him in this matter and help him out.

We are sorry to see that James H. Shields has sold his home, but hope it will not involve the family leaving the city, as we have feared his new business arrangements might necessitate. Mr. Shields is one of the kind of men—sturdy, honest and public spirited—that Highland Park needs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Morgan reached Highland Park last night on their return from their wedding trip. Excepting Christmas week they will be here a month before going to the Lakota for the winter.

Lieut. and Mrs. Jamieson and son and Misses Louise and Irene Floyd are expected next week from Sandy Hook. Lieut. and Mrs. Jamieson will spend a portion of the winter with Mrs. Floyd.
