The librarians of the public library are preparing a new finding list, which will probably be ready for distribution by Feb. 1, 1900.

The following is an outline of entertainments to be given by the Art League this winter; Miss McDougall, art critic of the Chicago Evening Post, who spent last summer in Winnetka, will talk to the Art League in January on some of the pictures, copies of which are owned by the league; in February there will be a musical, and a ten-minute talk on Schumann will be given, with illustrations; in March a "Nature Day," with a talk on Birds; in April a Japanese day, with a talk on Japanese art, which will be illustrated by a loan collection.

A Christmas party was held in the Sunday school room of the Congregational church on Tuesday evening of this week. About seventy-five children were present, as well as a number of the older members and friends of the school. The party opened, with marching conducted by Miss Florence Capron. This was followed by a short program consisting of Christmas songs and recitations. Miss Margaret Monrad read a selection from "The Bird's Christmas Carol." A number of games were played and the party closed with a few charades. Ice cream and cake were served as a surprise to the children. Games, toys, fruits and vegetables were brought by the children and were sent to Chicago Commons.

The opening of the new clubhouse planned for January 1st has been postponed. The date will probably be Jan. 11.

Miss Sarah Babcock left the village this week for St. Augustine, Fla. Mrs. Babcock will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. William McKinney for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis MacGerald and Mrs. Wood, Mrs. MacGerald's mother, removed last week to New York, where Mr. MacGerald continues in charge of the Chicago Record's foreign cable work.
