Miss Mabel Basterdes is visiting at Plano, Ill.

Mr. Jas. Mitchel is the father of a little girl baby.

A son came as a Christmas gift to Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Shields.

Mr. J. F. Henderson spent Tuesday with Lake Forest friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Anderson, Jr., are occupying their new home.

Mr. Jno. Ferry spent the holidays with his mother in Lake Forest.

Mr. Henry Anrich of Chicago spent Wednesday in Lake Forest.

Mr. Granger Farwell is fully recovered and able to go to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Chatfield-Taylor left "Fairlawn" yesterday and went to town.

· Miss Edna Ward entertained the young set at a card party Tuesday evening.

Miss Leona Nuckolls is spending the holidays with her parents at Springfield.

Mrs. Russell Wells has returned from a protracted visit to her parents at Milburn.

Joseph and James Densler, oldtime residents of Lake Forest, are here visiting.

The Lady Macabees held public nesday for Detroit, Michigan. installation of officers last night at Blackler's Hall.

The Chatfield-Taylors entertained a gay crcwd at a skating party on New Year's day.

Miss Ress McClanahan is confined to the house with a threatened attack of pneumonia.

Misses Eva Dowst and Genevieve Melody of Waukegan visited with Lake Forest friends during the week.

Miss Nellie Dewey, returned to Palatine Tuesday to resume her work as teacher in the public school of that place.

Mrs. Carter Fitz Hugh is bequeathed the amount of $500,000 in the Blair will. She is a grand daughter. of the deceased millionaire.

A letter was received this week from William White, who went to Klondiké some two years since. He is prospecting and is enjoying tolerably good luck.

Miss Sabra Sargent, principal of Ferry Hall, spent the holiday vacation in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus H. McCormick gave a reception last night in honor of their guest, Miss Hooper.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dwight and Miss Florence Dwight sailed from New York on the Fuerst Bismarck Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Chatfield-Taylor led the Rose Quadrille at Mrs. Potter Palmer's ball—the swellest of the holiday functions given in Chicago during the week.

Lake Forest society people are interested in the announcement of the engagement of Melville E. Stone Jr, to Miss Lulu Hosmer, both young people being well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Yaggy returned from New York Thursday. Mr. Yaggy is well on the way to recovery from the unfortunate accident which befell him while on his vacation trip

Peter Walker, who for the past two years has acted as professional, Onwentsia golf links, has resigned his position with the club, and starts at once for Edinburgh, where he has secured a professorship in the university.

An unusual and most interesting ceremony was the pontifical mass celebrated at midnight on New Year's eve at St. Mary's church. A fine musical program was rendered by the choir, under the direction of Mr. Fred Green.

Glencoe Department

Miss Love returned Monday from her Xmas holidays.

Miss Edna Owsley was Miss Hankey's guest last week.

Miss Annie Harry returned home from Wisconsin last week.

Miss Katherine Fanning left Wed-

Mr. John Owsley was the guest of Mr. John Newhall last week.

The Misses Schnur left last week for Fort Scott, Kansas, to visit friends.

Messrs. Will Hazzard and Ered Dewar were in the village Monday.

Mr. Gordon Ramsey was the guest of his aunt, Dr. A. A. Flanders, last week.

Miss Jones of Kalamazoo, Mich., was a guest at Mr. G. J. Case's last week.

Mr. Lawrence Howard preached at the Congregational church last Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Everz of Evanston will preach at the Congregational church Sabbath.

The Woman's Guild will meet in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock.

Mrs. George Orde and son have gone to Peterborough, Canada, to cording to specifications, perhaps by visit her father.

The Glencoe school opened Tuesday morning.

Miss Jeanette Carter of Chicago spent the holiday week with Miss Emma Wilmarth.

The Bachelors and Benedicts gave a dance at the village hall Friday evening, Dec. 29th.

Miss Johnson returned last week from a long visit with friends in Maine and New York.

Miss Helen Blythe of Racine, Wis, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Daggett, Downing avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Case and son are the guests of Mr. Case's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Case.

The New Year's reception held in the church parlors Monday last was a social event; some two hundred guests were present.

Mr. Charles Cape of Racine was in the village Tuesday, looking after matters connected with his Green Bay road contract. Mr. Cape had a severe illness, quinsy and diptheria in turn, but is quite recovered. We understand he is of opinion that the $18500 turned over to the village last fall by the electric company will fall short of completing the work ac-$1000 to $1400.