AN ENJOYABLE EVENING.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by a favored few at the residence of Mrs. O. D. Swain Saturday evening last. Some very choice artists gave a vaudeville performance, which was so good that they have been asked to repeat the performance at the village hall.

We asked for a list of those present, and this enigma came in reply through the post office:

"O, pshaw," said the Cook, "I've made a mess of it, and the lunch will be 'Scott-free.' In any case we are in the soup, and the roast is dun Brown." The army swore terribly in Flanders, but they won the day. One gallant Swain distinguished himself by Fanning his fair with a toothpick, and suddenly raised the war cry, "On to Richmond."
