

Republican County Convention.

A Republican county convention will be held at the town hall in the village of Libertyville, Lake county, Illinois, on Saturday, February 24th, A. D. 1900, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting 20 delegates to the Republican senatorial convention to be held at Woodstock, McHenry county, Illinois, on March 8, 1900; and also for the purpose of selecting 13 delegates to the Republican state convention, to be held at Peoria, Illinois, on May 8, 1900; and also for the purpose of selecting delegates to the congressional convention of the Seventh congressional district, yet to be called. It having been resolved at a meeting of the county central committee that each voting precinct in the county be declared a primary district, and that primary elections for caucuses be called for each of said primary districts, it is therefore recommended that primary elections or caucuses be called for each primary district in said county on Friday, February 23rd, A. D. 1900, at the usual hour. The representation for each primary district will be one (1) delegate for each 27 votes, or major fraction cast for the Republican candidate for president in 1896. The several primary districts will thus be entitled to send delegates to the said county convention as follows:
