Mr. O. McG. Howard returned home last week from a three weeks' visit at Bangor, Me.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. Ignatz Schweiger Wednesday of last week.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. Charles Shaw entertained a number of friends at afternoon tea.

The chorus class is a thing of the past. So little interest was taken in it that Mr. Williams, the leader, felt compelled to resign.

It is hoped that the members and friends of the church will give their new pastor, Rev. M. W. Darling, a warm welcome next Sabbath.

The bequest of $5,000 left to the Women's Literary club by the late Thomas Allen has been paid and is in the hands of the club's treasurer.

A number of the school children took advantage of the half rate tickets issued to the schools and attended the battle of Manila last Saturday.

There will be special services at the Episcopal church every evening during Lent at 7:30 o'clock, beginning Friday, March 2nd. On the evening of March 9th Dr. Rushton of Chicago will preach. All friends are invited to join in these services.

The Women's Guild of the Episcopal Church will entertain their friends at a dime social tea on Monday, March 5th, from 3 to 6 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Forsythe, "The Country House." There will be a short program. All the ladies of the village are cordially invited. Come early.

Willie, the little son of Mr. Fred Helke met with an accident that may prove serious. On Saturday he was out with his brother's air rifle. A little friend who was with him remarked that he had better turn the barrel up or he would get it filled with snow. He did so, and seeing snow in the barrel struck the butt of the gun on the sidewalk, being loaded the blow discharged it, the shot entering back of the eye ball.

The sale of the school house, advertised to occur on the 28th, was enjoined by the village, papers being prepared by Attorney Morton T. Culver and signed by President Orde and Councilmen Parks, King and Newhall. A joint meeting of the board of education and the council is appointed for this (Saturday) evening at the council chamber.

OBITUARY.

Morton Culver, an old citizen of Glencoe, who twenty years ago was active and prominent in the affairs of the village, departed this life on Monday last and was buried at Rosehill Friday.

Mr. Culver was a lawyer of excellent capacity and when a young man served as clerk and attorney for the village. He was for many years in active practice at the Chicago bar. He served his country in the volunteer army in the war of the Rebellion, was a Grand Army veteran and felt a commendable pride in that part of his career. He was taken off by progressive paralysis, at an age when he ought still to have had a good many useful years before him. He was a man of fine intellectual powers and of engaging personal qualities, and well liked wherever known.

Highland Park Notes.

Don't forget the city council meeting next Tuesday evening, March 6.

Miss Kate Stoddard very wisely told the children of her eight rooms Wednesday noon not to return in the afternoon, the storm was so severe.

Miss Minnetta Miller braved the storm Wednesday, went up to the high school, returned at the close of the session and then shoveled a path to the street so her papa could get in as he returned from Chicago.

We understand it has not yet been decided which of the several Highland Park Republican delegations to the convention this spring Democratic Mayor Cobb and Attorney Knox will chaperon. When Dr. Ingalls was approached on the subject, his reply is said to have been quite laconic and pointed. "Get thee behind me —, thou art an offense unto me." They got.

The electric cars battled successfully with the snow storm Wednesday and made almost as good time as the old steam cars.

Where was Father Street Wednesday: we did not see him out in that blizzard at all. Like all youngsters he likes to brave a storm; the worse the storm the better the fun. Later: He was at home absorbed in David Harum.
