

was governor in 1826-28, was another of heaven's noblemen in high position. He had filled almost every office in the gift of the people in town, county, state and nation. While governor flunkies abounded, and people whose genealogical tree had no roots, and few unpromising branches, were making a great spread, he refused such stuff and even rode to the state capital on horseback, put his own horse out in the pasture, hanging up the saddle bridle himself, and ruled the state wisely, as Washington ruled the nation. Hence you see our German neighbor's employer, Mr. Bingham, had good precedents for his manly, sensible and Christian spirit and method with his workingmen.

The west side sewer outlet business was dismissed from court Monday last, on Mr. Knox's own motion, as he saw the judge would throw it out if it came to a judgment. Now what we want to know is who pays the costs so far made and who is responsible for the failure. The property owners, or lots of them over there, voted for Knox for city attorney, but when they wanted to beat the ordinance they had sense enough to employ the old city attorney, Smoot, and he knocked it out. Again we ask who pays the expenses of Knox's failure? We have heard of lawyers in Chicago who "don't know nothin' about law," and it begins to look as though some of them had wandered north of Cook county line.

The board of management of the Highland Park Woman's Club were entertained at a most delightful luncheon on last Wednesday, by Mrs. Frank Green, the first vice-president of the club. Work for the coming year was discussed and a list of subjects decided upon for presentation at the annual business meeting of the club.

The filter bed ordinance was signed Monday and will be published in the Waukegan Sun today (Saturday), but only a few here will see it. So start out on your petitions for a special election as soon as it is out. The people have 21 days after publication to file their petitions for a special election.

St. Johns Avenue to Be Paved.

It is with keen regret that we notice, when too late, that Francis Thorn's name was omitted from the list of signatures to the terms of agreement as printed on Page 4, under the article headed "St. Johns Avenue to Be Paved." MANAGER.

Did not Mayor Cobb order the clerk to correct the records Tuesday night, in the matter of his voting aye on that tie vote? Has the mayor or an alderman any power or authority to change the records or order them changed? We think there must be a vote of the council to do that, and they can only do it when the evidence is clear and conclusive. The clerk is supposed to have his records correct and they can't be changed by the mood of an alderman or mayor.

A non-resident subscriber says the old-time NEWS was too mild for him, a kind of toasted bread coffee. But now it is as lively as a March hare. Indeed, it is so full of life and spice of the jamaica ginger type, that he dotes on it. In fact he can hardly wait to get it out of the mail, he wants to read it so badly. His good wife has to sew on some of his vest buttons every week.

25 Cents!

Just half price—March 1st to July 1st—for 25 cents; that is, just half price. We do this to give everybody not now a subscriber an opportunity to try the NEWS-LETTER and decide for themselves whether they want it.

Just as soon as our list grows to a point which will permit it, we shall reduce the price to $1.00 a year. The advantage of this price will be extended to those who have or may subscribe at the regular rate of $1.50 when the time comes for a reduction.

Please call with your quarters at once and tell your friends to do the same, or have the money ready when the agent for the NEWS calls on you.

If you wish, for another 25 cents you can have the "Household" of Boston, the most practical woman's paper, the size of the "Ladies' Home Journal," for one whole year. You had better try it. Thirty-two pages each and every month, finely illustrated.

The March meeting of the North Shore Chapter, D. A. R., has been postponed. Notices will be sent to members when a date has been decided upon.
