There was a burglar scare down on Willow street one night this week. B.—Any man woman or child on Willow street can give any further information desired.

The Treble Clef club gave its first public recital Tuesday afternoon to about fifty invited guests, who thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful music given. During the intermission the constitution of the club was read, showing that the permanent organization is now a matter of fact. A president, secretary, treasurer and music committee constitute the official management under the conductor, Mrs. Jirah D. Cole, and ladies wishing to become members were invited to apply to the music committee on the afternoons of Tuesday, April 10 and Tuesday, October 9. Following the business came the remainder of the program, closing with a beautiful number, "Night Bells," by Dr. Chas. Vincent. Refreshments and a social hour closed a very enjoyable afternoon. A delightful feature was the quiet gift of three beautiful ferns to the director, the accompanist and the president of the club from the members. The Treble Clef takes up through April the study of Rheinicke's beautiful cantata, "Bethlehem," and, after the summer vacation, will resume work upon it in October, preparatory to a public recital about Christmas time.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Cunningham and Mr. Arthur Brinckhoff was celebrated last Monday, April 2nd. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. G. Moore in Christ Church and it was one of the prettiest of the season. The bridal party was preceded by the choir boys, who sang a joyous wedding song. Following these were the Misses Margaret Weart and Hester Powell as ribbon bearers, dressed in white. Miss Fanny Hewes acted as maid of honor to the bride and Mr. Wm. Parry as best man to the groom. The bride wore a dress of nun's veiling and a veil fastened with a brooch of pearls, a gift of the groom. The maid of honor was dressed in blue organdie and carried a beautiful bouquet of tulips and the bride carried white roses. After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride. About a hundred guests repaired to the house to congratulate the newly married couple and to admire the many handsome wedding gifts. Miss Donna Woodford and Miss Edith McConnell presided over the wedding table, which was decorated with white carnations and smilax. The bride and groom left at 6 o'clock for their home in Atchison, Kan., amid showers of rice, old shoes and good wishes.
