The old Council having finished up the week before it, adjourned. The new president and Council came in, and, having been sworn in by Notary James K. Calhoun, President Culver took the chair, and the new body organized to the extent of re-electing the clerk, and adjourned to Saturday evening, the 7th. The lobby was full and enthusiastic, as usual on such occasions. After the adjournment a call was made for a speech from the new president. Mr. Culver responded in a few well-chosen words, assuring the audience that it was the hope and expectation of the new Council that they would be able during the year to make some substantial progress towards needed village improvements. The Glencoe band discoursed several pieces of good music.

At the recognition meeting in honor of Dr. M. W. Darling Thursday evening of last week, Dr. Dowd of Winnetka presided. He introduced Dr. Sturdevant of Ravenswood, who gave a humorous and witty sketch of his acquaintance with and knowledge of Dr. Darling. Dr. Barry of the Evanston Avenue church, Chicago, came next with a number of pleasant reminiscences. Dr. Loba of Evanston spoke of the relation of pastor and people. Dr. Southworth claimed the longest acquaintance with Dr. Darling, having been a pupil in the school of which Dr. Darling was principal. He responded in a few appropriate words. A reception was held in the church parlors after the meeting.
