

Butterick's Patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.

If you have a good piano you would like to rent for the summer send word to Judge Hibbard.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the city council next week Wednesday evening, April 18th.

Mrs. George Elvey has been ill with the grip several weeks, and does not improve as fast as her friends wish.

W. A. Alexander has rented his palatial lake shore residence for the season, and is building a cottage north of Capt. O. H. Morgan's.

Miss Grace Elvey is in Waukegan learning how to run a postoffice, as she is to be an attache of ours as soon as a Republican sells stamps here.

Schneider & Cook have just received a new line of belt buckles, belt pulleys, silver and gold bracelets. Nethersole bracelets a specialty.

The C. & M. Electric Railway have put on a large gang of men raising and ballasting their tracks. At present they are working north of Winnetka.

A large company of young people attended a Christian Endeavor meeting in Chicago, at the Y. M. C. A. building last evening and report an eminently satisfactory meeting.

M. S. Roebing and family have returned to the Park for their future home, after a few years absence in Edison Park and other undesirable suburbs. He is working on the "Moraine".

Schneider & Cook have a genuine curio in the shape of a hat pin, having a gold head with engraved initials. It was found last fall on the lake shore, and owner can have same by calling at their store.

Charles Patchen, for some time chief clerk in Geo. B. Cummings drug store, goes to Montana on a hen ranch and will raise eggs and broilers for the millionaire nabobs of that far off land of gold. His health demands a change and we wish him success.

Mrs. Andrew Boek, who has spent some two or three weeks in a Chicago hospital, was brought home Sunday last and was doing finely at last reports. Her rapid recovery is a great satisfaction to her family and friends.

Our wise city fathers, fearing that a knowledge of the city doings, past or future, might prove injurious to our people, decided a few weeks ago to have all such news published in an out-of-town paper which the Park people don't take. THE NEWS ventures to inform the people that there will be a city election next Tuesday for the election of four aldermen—one in each ward. Don't forget it.

Assessor Brand is distributing his blanks for people to fill in returns of their personal property. We shall watch the results later on with no little interest to see how the assessments he does make this year compares with those which the other fellows made last year and charged up to Mr. Brand.

Alfred Moses, over at the "Northwestern," has laid in a fresh supply of "Klondike" overcoats for those disappointed politicians who started up "Salt River" for the North pole this week, as well as for those who will begin the trip one week hence. Buy early, as he may advance the price in view of a prospective brisk demand.

J. McGregor Adams called on his Park friends Saturday and took a look at his beautiful summer home, "Yarrow," down on the lake front.

Samuel Levin has severed his connection with Schneider & Cook and opened a jewelry store in A. P. Dunn's store on St. Johns avenue.

Easter Service at the Baptist Church.

There will be special Easter services at the Baptist church next Sunday. Easter music will be used in worship. Two or three new voices will help in the choir. The pastor will preach. No service is announced for the evening.
