Editor Sheridan Road NEWS LETTER

The Highland Park Woman's cl have secured for its evening meeting next winter Professor Edwin Sparks of the Chicago Univers who will deliver six lectures. Top 'The Men Who Made the Nation Profesor Sparks says of the cours Healthy, "It is the most picturesque period our history and deals with v known personages." An added traction of the course is, that steriopticon is frequently used Comfort- the pictures are reproductions the American and English art that time. To those who had never heard Professor Sparks would say that he is a most char ing speaker, perfectly at home w his subject, using no notes and hancing general interest with cle stories and delightful touches of and humor. It is hoped that the men of town, will take a personal interest in this course and aid the Highland Corset and Glove Repairing. Park Woman's club by taking coulse tickets ($1.50 for the six). It most Mrs. G. Bohl, "IcDonald's Block, be borne in mind that the Highland Purk Women's alub is open to order woman in Highland Park and accepts THE BEST PROTECTION YOU CAN as associated members the men bewomen. Our dues are $1.10 a year. We are utterly dependant upon club treasury to meet current penses. We have no club house our disposal and for the con year must pay $2.00 a meeting our afternoon sessions in Lib Hall and for our evening meet (requiring light) a larger necestax for the Baptist church. Reing that our membership alrerepresented the majority of H land Park homes, we feel that Club, is a force for good and so we ask the men of Highland Par to help us to secure good audiences for Professor Sparks. Any one desi ag a course ticket can apply during he treasurer of Highland Park Wom u's Club. Respectfully Submitted, ing Friday night. Alderman Grant introduced the ordinance making appropriations. They put on an extra $400 to the fire department to secure 400 feet of extra hose, so as to be ready for service in the winter. One or two small bills were ordered paid. The matter of a "condenser," an auxiliary heater, came up. It was fully discussed two years ago and all favored it then. The fire and water committee was instructed to put them in at a cost not exceed. in longing to the families of the club ing $600. They will save from $200 to $250 a year in fuel alone. A request from the electric railroad to improve their accomodations, went to the street and ally committee.

Alderman Van Riper created a great laugh by saying "filter bed," when speaking of the "condenser" but all agreed such a lapsus linguae was pardonable in view of his early departure for Europe.
