The scheme to unite the North Shore towns in an effort to secure better drainage for all our towns through the skokie is starting off well. All the towns as far north as Waukegan have enlisted in the enterprise, so that their joint efforts will probably secure some legislation.

Louis J. Yager of the Waukegan Baptist church, told us Monday their school has just made up its annual report and found it has 363 pupils on the list, with an average attendance of 240 for last year, all of which shows that the school is in a highly prosperous condition as well as the church itself.

Two of our golfers are in the Onwentsia tournament this week, so the $500 president's cup by Judge Fullerton, twice won by Mr. McCawly, of Philadelphia, may yet come to some fortunate Parkite. We see Henry Chandler Egare is forging to the front as a player. Hold the cup if you can. You bear an honored name.

A movement is in progress among the different railroad orders to assess each of their 140,000 members a small tax for the support of the Railroad Men's Home. Their plans should such an assessment be decided upon would include a four or five story building costing about $40,000. It is to be hoped that the home will receive this recognition and support.

Don't forget that this week, Saturday the 18th, will be your last chance this year to go to Lake Geneva at excursion rates. If you don't go now you can't see the most beautiful lake in all the west and ride all day on its placid waters for fifty cents, see the wonderful Yerkes observatory, the elegant mansions of Chicago millionaires, the cottages by the hundred of less wealthy people, and the tents of the Y. M. C. A. and other temporary campers, and 160 miles of choice railroad travel all for $1.00. Don't come to us for sympathy if you miss this last chance.

The lawn party given by Miss Grace Margerum to her friends last Saturday evening, was changed in character by the heavy rain. But those who were present declared that the retreat indoors only added to the fun, and all voted the affair a complete success.

Last Saturday night burglars took advantage of the noise of the storm and entered Rudolph Bros.' grocery store. Though they drilled two holes they failed to open the safe, and were forced to retire empty-handed. They went to the stable of the Nelson Bros., took their best team, and so reached Chicago. Mr. Nelson, having notified the Chicago police, received word Monday to come down and identify his team. Horse and buggy were found on Washtenaw avenue, but no trace of the burglars.

It may be of interest just now, to remind our readers that many of the very latest, and most authoritative books on China are in our village library. Beginning with the popular and entertaining work of Dr. Arthur Smith, on "Chinese Characteristics," one can continue with Mrs. Bishop's volumes on the "Yangtze Valley," add Dr. Martin's "Cycle of Cathay," enjoy Miss Seidmore's "China," take up Mr. Colquhoun's heavier book, "Overland to China," and dip into more of the political history in Henry Norman's "Peoples and Politics of the Far East." Surely it is foolish to be longer ignorant of China, when one can be so delightfully enlightened.

The following books have been added to the Winnetka library: Fiction—Agnes Surringe, Byner; Sword of the King, McDonald; Adventures of Francois, Mitchell; Jessamy Bride, Moore; Parsouage Porch, Gilman; Love of Parson Lord, Watkins; Tales of An Old Chateau, Boyet; Widow O'Gallaghan's Boy; Zollinger; Good-hearted Girl, Marshall; Wheat and Hackleberry Yaile; Herry, Molesworth; Cous Phillis, Gaskill; Dear Irish Girl, Tynan; A Friend of Carsar, David Children of the Mist, Phillots; Saagosa, Galdo; Country of the Pointed Firs, Jewett; Wessex Tales, Hardy; Arden Massiter, Barry; Trav and History—Highways and Byways in N. Wales—Norway; Yangt Valley, 2 vols., Bishop; Highway and Byways in Normandy, Dearme; Highways in Devon and Cornwall; Bradley; Stories from Italy, Godin; China, Scidmore; Cycle of Cathay; Martin. Overland to China, Colquhoun; Eper Alexander I, Goufier; History of People of United States, McMasters; United States Naval Academy, Benjamin. Science and Religion—Easy Chapter in Science, Awdry; Among the Fore People, Pierson; Spiritual Life, Co Psychology of Religion, Starbuck. We would suggest that our readers add these printed lists as they appear from time to time to the catalogues issued lately. In that way, with but slight cost of time and trouble, your catalogue will be kept up to date.
