LAKE FOREST, HIGHWOOD, FORT SHERIDAN, HIGHLAND PARK, RAVINIA, GLENCOE, WINNETKA, LAKESIDE
VOL VIII. FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1900. NO 14

Highland Park.
Bazar patterns at Mrs. Bohl's.
Mrs. Sheridan, an interior decorative artist, with an office in the Marshall Field office building, dined with Miss Holden, Sunday.
Miss Eleanor Brown returned Saturday from her summer outing, and Monday she and Connie Gray were on the streets together as usual.
Miss Bottum, of the fifth grade, is expected back in her old quarters at Ravinook today, Saturday, September 1, A. D. 1900.
Parts and needles for all sewing machines at Schneider & Cooke's.
Richard S. Hawkins chaperoned a party of ladies to Diamond Lake, Tuesday, as he knew the way over there and the ways of the natives when he reached there.
William King is the "off and on" or the "morning and night" assistant in the postoffice now. He is a whole team in himself, with the fifth-wheel strapped on behind and the dog under the wagon.
Ex-city Attorney K. R. Smoot, returned Tuesday morning from his two or three weeks vacation in the country. He was called to Highland immediately, to help the city council up there out of its perplexities.
The electric railway excursion tickets to the Northwestern Elevated Railway at Wilson avenue, are sold by Cumming's, the druggist.
The Lake County Christian Endeavor convention will be at Gray's Lake this year, October 27th. Gray's Lake is rapidly becoming the reunion and convention city of the county. Pretty good place to go. We have sampled their hospitality.
A conservative estimate put the old soldiers in Chicago this week at 45,000. While their wives, sisters, cousins, aunts and other relations, number 300,000 more, whose battle is, "We are coming dear old Chicago, three hundred thousand strong."
The shirt-waist like the bicycle and the sineque, has come to stay. Two fashionable seaside hotels admit male guests to their dining rooms for breakfast and lunch in shirt-waists, but draw the line at dinner, for that gentlemen must appear in costume de rigueur.
Standard Oil Co.'s gasoline, none better, at 10c a gallon at Evans Bros.
On Sunday evening, Mrs. Elizabeth Krecker, of Philadelphia, Pa., will give an address on the subject of "Missions in the United Evangelical Church." Mrs. Krecker spent nine years as missionary in Japan, and since her return to this country has for a number of years held the position of president of the Woman's Board of Missions, of that church.
We were surprised to learn a day or two since that the heavy electrical storm of Sunday, August 18th, inflicted damage on the E. E. Prussing house on Sheridan Road north, home of the Chapman family. No one was seriously injured, though a bolt of lightning covorting through a house is liable to disturb the nerves of anyone.
Rev. Pfanstiehl and his Young Men's Bible class returned from their outing at Ephraim, Wis., enthused with the pleasures of the trip. The boys would rather get asked as to seasickness! But ask them about boat races, bathing, the dapper steward on the boat which provided delightful entertainment. Ephraim is such a delightful spot that Mr. Pfanstiehl and family remained there another week after the "boys" time was out. Mr. Godson took charge of the excursion on the home trip. In every possible way the outing was a great success, and Mr. Pfanstiehl says he never had a more satisfactory and happy vacation.

Eyes tested free by an optician at Schneider & Cooke's.
Mr. McNichols, father of Dale Sweetland's new drug clerk, an old war veteran, and like a G. A. R. man, came to Chicago this week and so out here, to see his son in a good, moral community. He looked the place over and returned to his home in Lacon, shall county, satisfied. That's one more for the Park.
Don't forget the city council meets next Tuesday evening in the enlarged decorated chamber. Be on hand and hold down those new, elegant leather stered chairs provided for the spectators. Perhaps there will be a little recess, and the aldermen will pass the cigars to the crowd. Election comes next April.
An eastern paper calls attention to the significant fact, that of a million-dollar estate left by the late Jonas G. Clarke, of Worcester, Mass., the Clarke University gets $2,800,000, while the late P. Huntington's twenty to fifty million dollar estate, public institutions receive the mere pittance of about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.
Mrs. Edward E. Gray and family have returned from their summer outing over in Michigan. "Tip" thinks he never did have such a time. Between fishing on the beautiful inland lake and breaking to saddle or bareback all the parts of the region, his vacation was one of unending delight. They are housed at the Ashtons, at the Maple till their own home is vacated.
There is danger in the air. Norman Scott, one of our well-known golfers, has been spending days with his family friends at Harbor, Me., where they have a game, the fad of all the "Roque." Now, if Mr. Scott should come back infected with "Roque," what would happen? We hesitate to paint the picture of the results. Keep an eye to the windward for "Roque."
We regret that in our imperfect obituary notice of the late Mrs. J. C. Clark last week, we made her the mother of Mrs. Judge W. S. Davis. As a matter of fact, she was the stepmother of the Judge himself, and of course no blood relation to any of his family. Hence, her gifts to them were all the more noteworthy and commendable, as too many people are just selfish enough to think of themselves and their own kindred.
We have received a very peculiar from the Moraine hotel management to the effect that they cordially invite Highland Park residents, summer or permanent, to their informal hops given at the hotel every Tuesday and Saturday evening during the season. We don't see how they could do any more to make plain that all will be cordially welcomed who can attend. Let the invitation be accepted in the same spirit in which it was extended.
Watches and clocks called for and delivered by Schneider & Cooke's.

Miss Alma Hoyt, formerly a resident of the village will teach this year in Desplaines, Ill. Miss Hoyt was very successful in Palatine last year and receives her due promotion.
Mr. F. C. Cook, formerly one of our best and most helpful citizens, was in town one morning this week. Mr. Cook grows younger every day, and expressed himself highly pleased with the increasing beauty of Winnetka.
Miss McConnel leaves on Saturday for her third year at the Library school of the Illinois University as one of the assistant instructors there. Her work has been very acceptable, and also a source of great pleasure to herself.
The Treble Clef club are already looking forward to taking up their work again on the first Tuesday of October. Mrs. Cole returned from California prepared to conduct the class as last year, and work is to begin in earnest on the "Bethlehem" cantata of Carl Reinecke.
Schneider & Cooke will make your broken spectacles look like new for a reasonable charge.

Two Winnetka young ladies are competitors in the open golf tournament of the Exmoor club. Miss Grace Leslie and Miss Alice Davis are among those who thus enter for the Skokie Club. Where is Miss Edith Parker.
The C. & N. W. R. offers us another excursion to Lake Geneva. Very good as far as it goes—but why is it always Lake Geneva? Two years or so ago fine excursions were given to Madison, Baraboo and other points. Why not again?
Mrs. J. B. Sanborn narrowly escaped a terrible injury early this week. In getting into her carriage carriage she slipped and fell across the shafts, and got entangled by her clothes over step and dash board. The fall jerked the lines and surprised "Robin" (Col. Sanborn's famous war horse) that he ran down Walnut and up Elm street before he was checked by Mrs. Sanborn who retained a sufficient presence of mind to talk quietly to him. Mr. West with the assistance of another man, extricated Mrs. Sanborn, who was still pluckily holding the lines. She was taken into Dr. Fletcher's house and an examination was found badly bruised, but not seriously injured beyond a fracture of both of the bones of the leg just above the ankle. Except for the inevitable pain Mrs. Sanborn is doing well.

Miss Hattie Steers, of Evanston, visited at S. Breakwell's the first of the week.

The store of Mrs. Steensohn and Preston seems to be doing a good business. There are in the place, in all, three general stores and five dealers in groceries.
Mr. Breakwell showed us a pair of hip leather boots which Rev. Mr. Billette, a former resident, used to wear. Sam was oiling them up for use by himself, though they come up to his ears.
The village council will act on the question of sewage for the entire village at a special meeting this Friday evening. But for the faulty action of our city council a year or two ago, they would have joined us in an enlarging and maintaining sewer "A."
Rev. S. B. Morris, having accepted a position as professor of mathematics in the Tacoma University at Tacoma, Wash., left for his new duties Wednesday of this week. His wife will spend the winter with friends in Lake Bluff. Thus our enterprising burg extends its influence from the lakes to the Pacific.
As we passed the Lancaster milk depot we stepped in to sample his lacteal supplies. We found his big cans standing in deep tanks of ice water, and he opened a can, dipped out a glass, and it tasted like that mother used to give us on the old farm. We don't wonder he has a big trade at the fort and elsewhere. It was pure, sweet, whole milk, cream and all.
If you have not been on the grounds of the electric railroad park up at Highwood, you have no idea of the improvements made there this season. The bandstand, all under cover, is moved around on the north side, hundreds of chairs and tables are scattered about the grounds, so picnickers can sit about in little groups eating their luncheon, etc., the pavilion is in fine shape, the lunch counters improved, and everything has the air and appearance of solidity and permanence, and the raw aspect of newness of last season has disappeared.
There are so many people who wanted to go on that last excursion to Lake Geneva and did not, that the Northwestern folks are going to run another to accommodate them. It will be next Wednesday, September 5th, at the usual time and rates. Some folks were born from due to six days too late, and they never catch up and never will!
