Grayslake.
 Mrs. Kimball was called to Iowa by the death of her sister last Wednesday.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their annual election of officers Friday Sept. 7th at the church.

Mrs. Eva Boyd left Wednesday for a six week's visit at her old home in Middleville, Mich.

John Seasholts and family have returned to Grayslake to live after living in Kenosha and Racine.

P. A. Robinson is nicely situated in his new offices and it is a bank any city might be proud of.

Dimmick Adams and wife of Corning, Iowa, are visiting at Emory Adams, the meantime renewing old acquaintance of thirty years ago.

Our school opened Monday with a large attendance. Miss Georgia Day is teacher of the lower room and Paul B. Fisher is principal. The first year of High school will be given.

Len Burge and wife are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Burge of Augusta, Kansas, and Lanard Doolittle and wife of Tennessee. Both gentlemen were soldiers of the 96th regiment and attended the banquet Wednesday.

Our Annual Harvest Offering will take place Thursday, Sept. 6. There will be speakers from all over the country, good music and a pleasant time for all who attend. Dinner and supper will be served by the ladies of the church.

Once again death has visited our little village in a most horrible manner. George McGuire, living south of Grayslake, returning home, after spending the evening here, was struck by the 9 o'clock passenger just south of the main crossing. The body was found Friday morning and was taken to Strang's undertaking rooms where the inquest was held. The funeral was held at the Catholic church in Libertyville with burial at Waukegan. Again we are reminded of the uncertainty of life.

Warren.
 Miss Eva Esty of Waukegan, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Fred Phelps of Chicago, spent Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. A. A. Stearns.

Mrs. Helen S. Gaze of Wilmette, was a guest at her brother's Henry Shepard's, this week.

Many of our old soldiers and their friends attended the exercises in Chicago on Tuesday.

Mrs. Bertha O. Morrill of Blue Island, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Charles Lamb, this week.

Mr. Jos. Eichinger entertained his many friends with a barn dance in his new barn, Tuesday evening. A large crowd attended and enjoyed themselves to the strains of Wilbur's Orchestra.

Warren has it's share of G. A. R. encampment visitors; Mrs. Harry Esty of Reece, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baughman of Cambridge, Nebraska, Horace Gaves and Mrs. Lizzie A. Black also of Nebraska, Mr. Kinsley House of Wisconsin, Mrs. Henrietta Nichallo of St. Paul, Minn., and Thomas Baily of Situate, Mass., are among the list.

Serious Charge.
 "The places of judicature I have long held in this kingdom have given me opportunity to observe the original cause of most of the enormities that have been committed for the space of nearly 20 years; and by observation I have found that the murders and manslaughter, the burglaries and robberies, the riots and tumults, the adulteries, fornications, rapes and other enormities that have happened in that time were divided into five parts, four of them have been the issues of excessive drinking, the tavern or ale house drinking."

SIR MATTHEW HALE,
 Chief Justice of England.
 Certainly nobody would question the experience, the judgment, the integrity of Chief Justice Hale. Abundance of similar testimony can be produced. Why then legalize drinking places?
 It is not sufficient or satisfactory for the old parties to say that the drinking habit is necessary evil. That it cannot be restricted and therefore must be regulated. If the dominant party in this country, the party that has been dominant for the last 40 years, save 8, can congratulate itself on the success of the prohibition in Maine, as we have shown elsewhere in this number, why should it not immediately take steps leading to the congratulation in like manner in Illinois, and in 43 other states; or at least in so many of them as it is the dominant party. And why should it not take steps at once leading to a like result in the territories, in our newly acquired territory, in the government forts, shipyards, the District of Columbia and in the army. It has the power. It has the opportunity. It must bear the consequence of not doing it.

Prohibition Grand Rally.
 The occasion of the eleventh annual Prohibition picnic held at Gray's Lake on the 30th, brought forth a grand rally of the Prohibitionists, not only of Lake county, but elsewhere.

Sessions—morning, afternoon and evening. The speaker of the forenoon was Rev. E. B. Sutton, who held the audience for an hour and a quarter. In the afternoon all were more than entertained by speeches from Alonzo W. Wilson, State Prohibition Secretary; Hon. Judge V. V. Barnes, Prohibition candidate for governor; Hon. Judge George W. Gere, candidate for governor four years ago, and the Hon. Frank S. Regan, Prohibition member of the Legislature; and Prohibition candidate for Attorney-General gave one of his inimitable chalk-talks.

In the evening there was an oration by one whose name the reporter failed to get, and also a speech by Col. John Sobieski, who is a lineal descendant of the last King of Poland.

The exercises were well interspersed by excellent music rendered by the brass band and vocal music by several parties.

The meeting was presided over by Col. H. P. Davidson, President of the Northwestern Military Academy, of Highland Park, Ill. Lack of space prevents a fuller report which will be given in the next issue.

What Police Justices Say.
 The board of police justices of the City of New York in their annual report a few years ago made the following statement:

"We are fully satisfied that it (intoxication) is the one great leading cause which renders the existence of our police courts necessary."

No set of men have a better opportunity to know the facts than the board of police justices of a great city like New York. Nor can any reason be assigned for any unfair prejudice on their part for or against the traffic in intoxicants. Their testimony ought therefore to be reliable. Other equally reliable judges of the facts place the per cent of crime due to the traffic and use of intoxicating beverages at from three-fourths to four-fifths of all crimes committed. Why then should the government legalize a business that thrives or quadruples the evils that inflict society and the taxes that burden the people?

An Historic Day.
 Next week, Tuesday, will be an important date in the historic calendar. Vermont will elect W. W. Stickney, of Ludlow, as governor for the next two years, with "Mart" Allen, of Ferrisburg, for lieutenant-governor, and lots of other fellows for minor offices. Being the first state election of the campaign of 1900, it is expected to set the pace for the other states in the Union, and the people are watching it from Machias Bay to the Golden Gate.

The other historic event will be the first fall meeting of the council of the city of Highland Park in the newly repaired, enlarged and decorated council chamber, directly over the jail, where the clanking chains of eringing criminals crouch in their cool, casemated cells. The winter campaign will be inaugurated.

California.
 Herbert F. Evans, as stated last week, left for California, Monday night, via the Santa Fe road, to complete his college course at the Leland Stanford University. His record at Colgate was so exceptionally fine, that the California school, though very exacting in its demands, admits him without any conditions to full standing on his record. A throat difficulty, his physician told him, demanded this change of climate. His father saw him off from Chi-
